

Management's Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) and operating results for the three-month and the first nine-month periods ended September 30, 2018

Executive Summary

In the Third quarter of 2018 (Q3/2018), net income of PTT and its subsidiaries was Baht 30,329 million, increasing by Baht 300 million or 1.0% from Baht 30,029 million in the second quarter of 2018 (Q2/2018) mainly due to the higher operating performance of exploration and production business from the rise in both average selling prices and sales volume. In addition, performance of gas business group slightly increased from previous period mainly from PTT's Natural Gas Supply and Trading (GSM) and Natural Gas Distribution (NGR) business area. Whereas, performance of petrochemical and refining business group decreased due to lower Accounting Gross Refining Margin (Accounting GRM) following the drop in stock gain together with the decrease in product prices of olefins petrochemical business even though product spread of aromatics petrochemical business increased. Likewise, the performance of oil business decreased with regard to the drop in gross profit due to lower stock gain in this quarter. However, in Q3/2018, there were lower loss on derivatives of PTT's group and unrealized gain on foreign exchange from foreign currency loan compared to unrealized loss on foreign exchange in the last quarter.

In the first nine months of 2018 (9M/2018), net income of PTT and its subsidiaries was Baht 100,146 million, increasing by Baht 330 million or 0.3% from Baht 99,816 million in the first nine months of 2017 (9M/2017) mainly caused by higher operating performance in almost all businesses. For exploration and production business, performance increased from the rise in both average selling prices and sales volume. For gas business group, both PTT's own operations and PTT's affiliates had higher performance. Performance of petrochemical and refining business also increased from the rise in Accounting GRM resulting from stock gain owing to higher crude oil prices. Also, olefins petrochemical business performance increased due to higher product selling prices and sales volume. However, in 9M/2018, there were higher loss on derivatives, as well as lower appreciation of Thai Baht against US Dollar compared with 9M/2017 resulted in a decrease in gain on foreign exchange, and higher income tax expense following higher performance and lower BOI tax privilege.

Economic Overview in the Third Quarter of 2018

The world economy in Q3/2018 expanded at a slower pace than in Q2/2018. Specifically, US economic growth slowed after hitting a 4-year high in Q2/2018. Nevertheless, an ever-tightening labor market allowed the Federal Reserve (the Fed) at its September 2018 meeting to increase its policy rate for the third time in 2018. Meanwhile, the euro area's economic recovery continued on the back of favorable financial conditions, as well as an easing of trade tensions with the US following the agreement in late July 2018 between the US and the EU to work towards zero tariffs. As for China, economic growth slowed in Q3/2018, but was in line with the government's target of 6.5%, amid authorities' deleveraging campaign, despite Chinese exporters front-loading their shipments before broader and stiffer US tariffs went into effect. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) in October 2018 revised down its global growth forecast for 2018 to 3.7% from its July 2018 forecast of 3.9%.

According to the International Energy Agency (IEA) in October 2018, global oil demand in Q3/2018 averaged 99.8 million barrels per day (MMBD), increasing from 98.5 MMBD in Q2/2018 and 98.3 MMBD in the third quarter of 2017 (Q3/2017). For the whole of 2018, global oil demand is expected to average 99.2 MMBD, shooting up from 97.9 MMBD in 2017.

Dubai oil price in Q3/2018 averaged US$74.3 per barrel, increasing from US$72.1 per barrel in Q2/2018 and US$50.5 per barrel in Q3/2017, amid concerns over a decline in oil output from Iran due to US sanctions and lower Venezuela's crude oil production. Meanwhile, OPEC+ increased oil production to replace the shortfall leading to lower spare capacity. Although US shale oil production is rising but constraints with pipeline and exports remain. Overall, oil demand is still rising amid declining oil stocks. While, concerns over US trade protectionism and economic problems in emerging and developing countries could be downside risk to oil price.

Petroleum product prices in the Singapore spot market recorded various changes in Q3/2018 relative to Q2/2018. Gasoline crack spreads in Q3/2018 averaged US$11.6 per barrel, a significant decrease from US$12.1 per barrel in Q2/2018 and US$16.1 per barrel in Q3/2017, amid stable demand and rising export from China which resulted in high inventory. Meanwhile, diesel crack spreads in Q3/2018 averaged US$14.4 per barrel, a decrease from US$14.6 per barrel in Q2/2018, but an increase from US$13.9 per barrel in Q3/2017, due to lower demand during the monsoon season. Fuel oil crack spreads in Q3/2018 averaged US$-2.6 per barrel, an increase from US$-4.5 per barrel in Q2/2018, but a decrease from US$-1.4 per barrel in Q3/2017, due to higher demand during summer, which resulted in lower exports from the Middle East to Asia.

Dubai crude cracking margin in Singapore in Q3/2018 averaged US$6.1 per barrel, a slight increase from US$ 6.0 per barrel in Q2/2018 due to sustained high demand for fuel oil, but a decrease from US$8.3 per barrel in Q3/2017.

Petrochemical price of Olefins in Q3/2018, for both high density polyethylene (HDPE) and polypropylene (PP), decreased from Q2/2018 as a result of tight supply due to several plants shutdown in Asia and Middle East, and lower demand from the depreciation of local currency against USD and concerns over trade protectionism measures. Furthermore, HDPE price has been pressured from US export, while there was more PP in the market from new plants started up in Malaysia and Vietnam. For Aromatics price, benzene (BZ) price increased compared to Q2/2018 and Q3/2017, mainly from higher naphtha feedstocks cost. However, the BZ spread over naphtha decreased due to subdue demand during several shutdowns of styrene monomer (SM) and phenol plants while Asia supply was ample. Meanwhile, paraxylene (PX) price was higher compared to Q2/2018 and Q3/2017 from high demand of polyester industry coupled with tight supply from unstable production in several large aromatic plants.

Thai economy in Q3/2018 expanded at a softer pace than in Q2/2018, from deceleration in tourism, mainly driven by a decline in Chinese tourists following the Phuket boat accident. Private investment grew at a slower rate due to inventory destocking after an unusual spike in Q1/2018. Nevertheless, government spending expanded at a healthy pace, supported by state-enterprise investment in mega-infrastructure projects. Merchandise exports continued to grow, in line with rising external demands. Private consumption expanded at a clearer pace, particularly expenditures on durable goods, following rising household incomes. The Fiscal Policy Office (FPO) in October 2018 maintained its Thai economic growth forecast for 2018 at 4.5%.

Also, gain on foreign exchange increased by Baht 4,918 million from loss of Baht 2,466 million in Q2/2018 to gain of Baht 2,452 million mainly due to unrealized loss on foreign exchange from foreign currency loans of PTT and TOP, due to an appreciation of the closing rate of Thai baht against the US dollar compared to the depreciation of Thai Baht against US dollar in Q2/2018.

In Q3/2018, there was non-recurring item which was the loss on Montara field divestment of PTTEP amount Baht 1,208 Million whereas in Q2/2018 there was no such item.

EBITDA, which adjusted the effect of foreign exchange rate and derivatives, in 9M/2018 was Baht 4,520 million, increasing by Baht 1,029 million or 29.5%, mainly due to higher margin of domestic condensate and outout trading of crude and condensate together with higher margin of imported crude and condensate. Consequently, operating income which adjusted the effect of foreign exchange rate and derivatives of international trading business in 9M/2018 was Baht 4,497 million from Baht 3,468 million in 9M/2017 in line with the rise in EBITDA.

Third quarter of 2018 compared with Second quarter of 2018

In Q3/2018, sales revenue of petrochemical and refining business was Baht 297,355 million, increasing by Baht 14,664 million or 5.2% due to the increase in sales revenue of refining business that average petroleum product prices of all products rose following crude price compared with the previous quarter. In addition, refinery utilization rates of PTT group increased to 104.6 % in Q3/2018 from 102.3% in Q2/2018, resulting from a planned turnaround of TOP's refinery from late May to mid-June 2018, despite a planned shutdown of IRPC's Hyvahl and RDCC unit in Q3/2018.

Sales revenue of Olefins increased from higher sales volume. Whereas, product prices decreased from soften demand of polyethylene due to lower import, because of the concern over the U.S. – China trade war, including the weakening Chinese Yuan against USD. For Aromatics product prices, PX price significantly increased from lower than expected of new supply in the market from Vietnam and Saudi Arabia. While, BZ price slightly increased due to restocking demand for Christmas and New Year gifts production, despite lower BZ demand as feedstock in China.

EBITDA of petrochemical and refinery business in Q3/2018 was Baht 31,288 million, decreasing by Baht 2,685 million from Q2/2018, and operating income was Baht 22,577 million, decreasing by Baht 2,716 million, mainly due to

- Refinery performance decreased as Accounting GRM dropped from US$ 8.34 per bbl to US$ 5.79 per bbl following lower stock gain from US$ 3.87 per bbl to US$ 1.06 per bbl. Even though, Gross Refining Margin excluding stock gain/(loss) (Market GRM) increased from lower crude premium.
- Olefins petrochemical performance decreased mainly from lower product selling prices while sales volume increased slightly by new capacity from LLDPE plant of PTTGC, which started commercial operation in March 2018, despite planned turnaround of PTTGC's olefin plants in Q3/2018
- Aromatics petrochemical performance increased mainly due to product crack spread over condensate especially PX which significantly increased.

First nine months of 2018 compared with First nine months of 2017

In 9M/2018, sales revenue of petrochemical and refining business was Baht 846,948 million, increasing by Baht 156,376 million or 22.6% mainly from the rise in average petroleum and petrochemical product prices in both aromatics and olefins following the increase in crude oil prices.

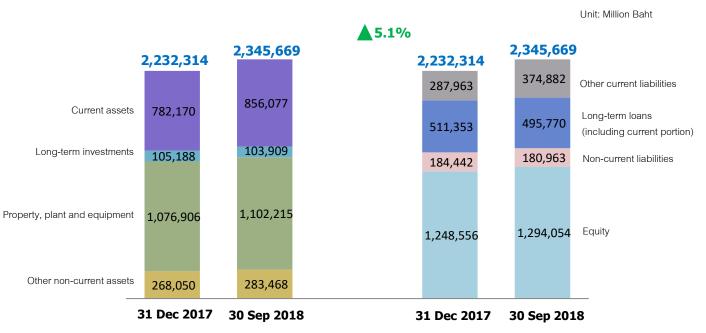

Sales volume of refining business rose following the increasing of refinery utilization rates from 98.6% in 9M/2017 to 104.1% in 9M/2018 together with sales volume of petrochemical business both olefins and aromatics increased due to in 9M/2017 IRPC's planned major turnaround as well as PTTGC's efficiency improvement and petrochemical plants shutdown, despite there was planned maintenance of PTTGC's Olefins plant in 9M/2018.

In 9M/2018, EBITDA of petrochemical and refining business was Baht 94,749 million, rising by Baht 6,609 million, and operating income was Baht 68,871 million, increasing by Baht 6,422 million, mainly from

- Overall refinery performance increased following higher Accounting GRM from US$ 5.94 per bbl in 9M/2017 to US$ 6.47 per bbl in 9M/2018 as a result of increasing in stock gain, although Market GRM declined from higher crude premium, together with lower fuel oil and gasoline crack spreads.
- Overall olefins petrochemical performance improved from the higher product selling prices and sales volume compared with last year.
- Aromatics petrochemical performance decreased due to lower BZ spread because of lower BZ import from China following the depreciation in Chinese Yuan against US Dollar and higher feedstock prices.
   Whereas, PX spread rose in 9M/2018.

Economic Outlook for Q4/2018

The world economy inQ4/2018 is expected to expand at a slightly slower pace than in Q3/2018. Specifically, in the US, strong labor market and tax cuts should continue to add meaningfully to growth, although Chinese retaliatory tariffs may have a negative impact on American output. Meanwhile, economic recovery is expected to continue in the euro area on the back of remained-low interest rates, despite the European Central Bank (ECB) in October 2018 already starting to taper its quantitative easing (QE) program and anticipating to end QE completely by December 2018. As for China, economic growth is expected to slow slightly, as the negative impact of broader and stiffer US tariffs on Chinese goods is felt, although Chinese easing off its credit campaign against risk should help prevent an even larger growth decline. Downside risks to the world economy include an escalating trade restrictions and retaliation, a surprise tightening of global financial conditions, and political uncertainty and geopolitical tensions and strife.

According to the IEA's estimates in October 2018, global oil demand is expected to grow by 0.4 MMBD to average 100.2 MMBD in Q4/2018 relative to Q3/2018. In addition, global oil demand is expected to grow by 1.3 MMBD to average 99.2 MMBD in 2018 – with emerging market and developing economies, especially Asian countries and China, being the key driver. Meanwhile, oil demand in advanced economies is expected to remain unchanged from the previous year. As for crude oil supply, smaller surplus is expected as a result of OPEC and non-OPEC's ongoing oil deal to curb output, rising geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and US sanction on Iran. However, it is important to look at the oil production and measures announce by OPEC in the next meeting in December. Nevertheless, Dubai crude oil price is expected to average US$70-75 per barrel in 2018.

Dubai crude cracking margin in Singapore in 2018 is expected to average US$6-7 per barrel, down from 2017, amid lower demand for petroleum products due to higher prices.

Olefins price in Q4/2018 is projected to be soften from Q3/2018. HDPE price is forecasted to average at US$1,319 per ton and PP price is expected to average at US$1,278 per ton from lower demand towards year end, and new PP plant start up in South Korea (S-oil, 405 kTA). The aromatics price is likely to rise further on the back of higher naphtha feedstock cost. BZ price is expected to average at US$ 886 per ton. The BZ spread over naphtha potentially becomes lower due to seasonally lower demand during the end of the quarter. PX price is projected to average at US$ 1,263 per ton. The PX spread over naphtha is expected to be stable from the new supply from Indonesia (TPPI, 550 kTA) that will compensate capacity loss during planned maintenance.

Thai economy in Q4/2018 is expected to grow at a slightly slower pace than Q3/2018, from a slowdown in private investment, in large part due to rising inventory destocking. As for tourism, growth is expected to improve on the back of the recovery of Chinese tourists amid intense stimulus measures from Thai government. Public spending should remain one of the key driver, particularly the progress of investment in mega-infrastructure projects. Meanwhile, merchandise exports are likely to maintain its momentum, supported by growing external demands and production relocation to Thailand. Continuous expansion in private consumption is expected, supporting by household income, which will improve and widely dispersed. Still, high household debt will continue to constrain domestic demand. Meanwhile, Thai economy still faces with some downside risks from intensifying trade protectionism, timing and magnitude of monetary policy normalization in advanced economies, and delays in government's budget disbursement.

Gas Business

Country: Projected Gas Volume

Gas Facilities Expansion

Assumption for country gas demand in year 2018-2022 has declined growth rate at -1.7% based on the recent situation of domestic power generators, from Electricity Generating Authority of Thailand (EGAT), Metropolitan Electricity Authority (MEA) and Provincial Electricity Authority (PEA), that tend to decrease as private sector generates power for themselves. In addition, gas demand in long term is expected to reduce from the previous plan which expects that country still need gas for electricity to replace some coal fired power plants and Energy Efficiency Plan (EEP) for 30%, while Alternative Energy Development Plan (AEDP) is expected to be the same as plan.
