Mr. Adisorn Sermchaiwong
Head, Consumer Banking Group

Q:

Many people wonder why CIMB Thai has so few branches.

A:

“Branch” is a conventional financial business platform.

At CIMB Thai, we see opportunities all around beyond branches. The “Pull” mode will still be practical for some clients, but we aren’t focusing on this mode. What matters more is the “Push” toward our clients. That is, whatever their lifestyles are, we’ll adjust our strategy to suit them. Further, we’ll constantly remain in the “On” mode.

As visualised in the digital world today, a bank is no longer located in buildings. Our “branches” will always be there wherever and whenever our clients require.

Q:

Every bank says it will take care of SME clients, but SMEs are complaining that banks just don't really understand their situations. Any chance of survival for Thai SMEs?

A:

First, we need to understand that despite SMEs' small size, they all want to make headway. So we must help them develop their potential and access to capital while growing their markets as well.

We have all along worked proactively with SME clients, not for our own good, but for their good. Leveraging on our strengths—CIMB Group's ASEAN network, we work with our clients confidently using data from our expert-analysed databases. In so doing, SMEs' size limitations suddenly bring new opportunities. And that's why I'm confident in Thai SMEs' bright ASEAN prospects.

Mrs. Wareemon Niyomthai
Head, Commercial Banking Group

Mr. Pornchai Padmintra
Head, Wholesale Banking Group

Q:

To most people, CIMB Thai seems to cater only to big businesses or those with overseas investment.

A:

That opinion may derive from a view of CIMB Thai as a full-fledged bank.

It's true, as a leading ASEAN bank, we command a strong foundation supported by a world-class research institute and by professional teams working in and outside Thailand—not to mention myriads of products for businesses, big and small.

Yet, this doesn't mean we're ignoring SMEs.

... We're more than ready to grow small businesses. Our experience with conglomerates is bound to steer SMEs in the right direction and ease all their concerns.

Q:

In a fiercely competitive market where technology ages as fast as geopolitics, the business world has gone into a tailspin. What's CIMB Thai's tactic to cope with this situation?

A:

Risk management isn't risk avoidance or fear of risk taking, but it's about turning risk into opportunities!

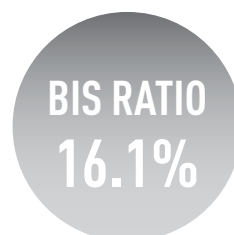

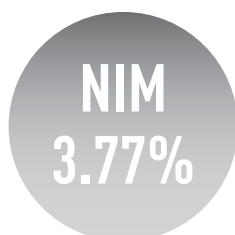

We have skillful, experienced teams in diverse areas. Our risk management professionals constantly track the world market and work with those bent on acquiring up-to-date technology and innovating financial products for clients' choice. The bottom line is: Turn risk into opportunities! Numerous acclaims for our products by international finance & investment magazines over the past few years speak for themselves. At CIMB Thai, we never fear changes. Thinking out of the box, we grapple with whatever changes ahead with ongoing innovative technological applications.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

CHAKRAMON PHASUKAVANICH

Chairman of the Board of Directors

Dear Shareholders,

2016 was themed as "Recharged #teamCIMB" marking a continuation of our journey towards the T18 goals in strengthening our position as the leading ASEAN bank and also building a better CIMB to serve our stakeholders. During the past year, the Thai economy has encountered pressures from falling farm income and weakening demand which has resulted in an environment of gradual economic recovery. Under this tough economic environment, the banking industry faced deteriorated asset quality issues and banks had to make substantial provisions burdening their balance sheet. When looking ahead to 2017, the economy is expected to continue its gradual path of economic recovery however pressures are likely to come from the global environment. Amid these challenges, CIMB Thai will continue to be resilient as we go FORWARD into 2017.

The Bank has reported a consolidated net loss of THB 629.5 million for the first time since inception of the CIMB franchise, and this was largely due to higher provisions from non-performing loans in isolated commodities-related industries as well as arising from the gradual economic recovery. It is noteworthy that despite the decline in net profit, the Bank's core operating fundamentals remained healthy and there are no systemic asset quality issues.

Furthermore, the Bank has made clear progress on a number of strategic initiatives, notably a robust growth in Preferred customer base, branch network optimisation, strengthening of partnerships and collaboration, successes in business transformation, capitalising on our ASEAN-platform to serve our customers, and maintaining good cost discipline. #teamCIMB were the key factor in driving this success and they continue to work together in growing a stronger and better Bank.

Moreover, good corporate governance is essential for the Bank in achieving its aspiration and CIMB Thai Group is committed to operating our business with transparency and in line with good corporate governance practices, anti-corruption policy, and code of ethics.

FORWARD to 2017, the Bank will raise equity through rights offering to strengthen our capital position and to ensure flexibility in business operations and expansion in accordance with the business plan. The proposed rights offering is backed by a strong commitment from CIMB Group and our BIS and Tier-1 capital ratios post offering will increase to 18.5% and 13.1% respectively.

There was a change in the composition of the Board of Directors during 2016. I would like to thank Mr. Subhak Siwaraksa for his invaluable guidance and leadership to CIMB Thai Group throughout his tenure as President and CEO, and I would like to welcome Mr. Pravej Ongartsittigul and Dato' Lee Kok Kwan, who were appointed as Directors, and Mr. Kittiphun Anutarasoti as the new President and CEO of the Bank.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I wholeheartedly thank our shareholders for their continuous support and extend my appreciation to management and #teamCIMB for their hard work and dedication. The Board will remain strongly committed to delivering sustainable returns to our shareholders.

"The Bank remains focused on being an ASEAN bank and through leveraging our vast regional network, we have been able to deliver innovative solutions and service excellence to our customers."

Dear Shareholders,

2016 was a year of gradual economic recovery for Thailand. GDP growth stood at 3.2% driven by public investments in infrastructure projects and tourism. Drought conditions have improved resulting in an increase in crop output, boosting the agricultural sector. The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) maintained the policy rates at 1.50% to support the Thai economy. Conversely, domestic pressure stemmed from falling farm income and weakened private consumption and investments. With dampened investor confidence in the private sector, loan growth has been stagnant, and when coupled with domestic factors, the economic environment gave rise to increasing non-performing loans (NPLs) impacting the banking industry, in fact, Bank of Thailand reported an industry-wide NPL increase of 0.28%. Looking ahead to 2017, challenges will likely be dominated by global pressures coming from U.S. trade measures, China's economic slowdown, and higher volatility of the capital markets. Therefore, CIMB Thai will continue to monitor and navigate through the complexities in the external environment to ensure operational sustainability.

Amid the challenging operating conditions, the Bank's core operating fundamentals remained healthy despite recording a loss. Consolidated net loss was reported at THB 629.5 million, compared with a net profit of THB 1,052 million in 2015. The loss was attributed to higher provisions mainly from rising NPLs in isolated commodities-related industries during the year as well as a general increase arising from the gradual pace of economic recovery.

Net interest income increased by THB 1,388.7 million or 16.4% YoY growth, resulting from a decrease in interest expenses. Net fee and service income increased by THB 167.9 million or 11.4% YoY growth, due to higher hire-purchase and financial lease fees and insurance premiums. As a result, the Bank reported its highest ever core pre-provision operating profit at THB 5,505 million or 7.8% YoY growth. Furthermore, the cost to income ratio improved to 57.4%, compared to 58.3% in 2015, a result of better cost management and increased income. Net interest margin over earning assets stood at 3.77% better than 3.27% in 2015, attributable to more efficient funding cost management.

CEO'S MESSAGE

KITTIPHUN
ANUTARASOTI

President and Chief Executive Officer

Gross NPL ratio and loan loss coverage ratio stood at 6.1% and 77.3% respectively. Taking into consideration the NPL sale completed in early January 2017, our proforma gross NPL ratio and loan loss coverage ratio would be 4.8% and 86.4% respectively. There are no systemic asset quality issues at the Bank. The Bank maintained a solid capital position, where our BIS and Tier-1 capital stood at 16.1% and 10.7% respectively, both well above the regulatory requirement and internal capital targets.

The Bank remains focused on being an ASEAN bank and through leveraging our vast regional network, we have been able to deliver innovative solutions and service excellence to our customers. This year we earned the "Best Business Model Execution Award" from The Asian Banker on our collaboration with AIS on Beat Banking. Our business transformation initiative was recognised by Retail Banker International as "Highly Commended in The Most Innovation Business Model." Our Group Information and Operation Division initiatives won the "Best Governance Risk and Compliance Project" from The Asian Banker and the "Excellent Award under Core Process Improvements" at the Thailand ICT Excellence Award. Our treasury and investment banking operation swept the "Most Innovative Deal," "Best Bank Capital Bond of Thailand," "Best Structured Products House," and "Best Credit Derivatives House" awards from The Asset. We are recognised by Thomson Reuters as the "Best Currency Liquidity Provider" and "Best THB FX Spot Contributor." Asiamoney polls the Bank as number 1 for the "Best Overall FX Services,"

"Best FX Products & Services" and "Best FX Research & Market Coverage." Our accolades prove that #teamCIMB is always committed to serving our stakeholders with market-leading solutions.

As we look FORWARD to 2017, we expect the overall economic situation to remain challenging from external factors. As such, the management team will focus on disciplined growth with increased focus on improving risk adjusted return on capital. The management team is committed to placing stronger controls on asset quality. Our strategic priorities will be anchored on the 5 C's – Customer, Culture, Compliance, Cost and Capital. Backed by a strong commitment from CIMB Group, the Bank will engage in a rights offering to reinforce our capital position and balance sheet going into 2017. #teamCIMB is deeply committed to upholding integrity and transparency in our business operation, and continuously supporting CSR projects in relation to educational, social and environmental development.

On behalf of the Management Committee, I would like to sincerely thank our shareholders, customers, and business partners for their unwavering trust and support during the year. I would like to express congratulations and best wishes to Mr. Surachai Chitratsenee, Mrs. Panute Na Chiangmai, Mrs. Siriporn Ambhanwong, and my predecessor, Mr. Subhak Siwaraksa on their retirement. Lastly, I would like to extend my gratitude to #teamCIMB whose hard work and contributions will surely drive us toward being the leading ASEAN bank.

Dear Shareholders,

What an interesting year 2016 turned out to be! Unexpected political outcomes capped a year of triumph for the nationalist-populist agenda, and sparked much debate on the pros and cons of rapid globalisation and technological change. Oil prices sank to their lowest level in 12 years while the pound fell to levels unseen since the 1980s. Meanwhile, self-driving cars made a great leap with Uber piloting a fleet of self-driving cars in the US.

2016 proved to be a year of continued recovery for Thailand. Despite a severe drought, the economy expanded 3.2%, whilst its stock market was one of the best performers in 2016. Its current account surplus also remained strong. Domestically, improved consumer sentiment, continued growth in tourism as well as increased infrastructure spending have been a boon for the consumer, tourism and infrastructure sectors.

Against this backdrop, CIMB Thai recorded a pre-provision operating profit growth of 7.8% Y-o-Y driven by improvements from the consumer and wholesale segments. Cost management initiatives put in place have continued to bear fruit where cost-to-income ratio declined by 84 basis points to 57.4%. CIMB Thai also recorded a positive JAW of 4.2%. However, elevated provisions largely from the commercial segment resulted in CIMB Thai reporting a consolidated net loss of THB 629.5 million.

Wholesale Banking continued to strengthen its ASEAN footprint while further facilitating cross-border deals and referrals. Notable deals included the successful execution of a USD 300 million initial public offering of a leading Thai power company which won “Best IPO Deal of the Year” at the 10th Annual Alpha Southeast Asia Deal & Solution Awards 2016 and the “Best Capital Markets Deal” at the IFRS Asia Awards 2016. In Commercial Banking, the team focused on improving the credit process by strengthening the credit foundation whilst also being proactive on the recovery front. Meanwhile, our Consumer pillar turned profitable for the first time where income grew 534% Y-o-Y.

LETTER FROM GROUP CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, CIMB GROUP

TENGKU DATO'
SRI ZAFRUL AZIZ

Group Chief Executive Officer,
CIMB Group

2016 saw the execution of all our T18 programmes comprising over 400 projects Group-wide, including projects within CIMB Thai. In particular, our programme focusing on the retail business in Thailand made substantial progress by strengthening CIMB Thai's wealth platform in the affluent segment, leveraging digital banking for the mass segment, and forming strategic alliances with AIS and 7-Eleven to provide an alternate banking channel for services such as account opening, deposits, remittance through Speed-Send, foreign currency exchange, personal loan and debit and credit card services.

In 2017, we will continue to build our resilience through several new major initiatives including setting up a digital hub and introducing our new brand positioning, “Forward”. We will also embed the newly outlined strategic priorities anchored on 5Cs – Customer, Culture, Compliance, Cost and Capital – in all existing operations and T18 programmes. More than ever, CIMB Thai will be focused on growing sustainably by improving risk adjusted returns on capital while keeping a watchful eye on asset quality. CIMB Thai has also proposed a rights offering to raise approximately THB 5.5 billion to reinforce its capital position and balance sheet to support business growth. By leveraging on our in-house expertise, the strength of our local network and regional outreach, enhanced operating model, and our commitment towards inculcating strong teamwork within the Group, CIMB Thai is well-equipped to enter 2017 with a clear roadmap to deliver better products and services to our existing and future customers.

CIMB Group remains committed towards ASEAN and Thailand's future growth potential and development. We believe that the Thai economy will maintain its resilience and continue to be one of the Group's strategic platforms to enhance and facilitate cross-border trade flows among ASEAN countries. Concurrently, we look forward to better performance from CIMB Thai in tandem with the growth of the nation and the region.

Finally, on behalf of CIMB Group, I would like to express my gratitude to the Government of Thailand, the Bank of Thailand, our customers, shareholders, the Board of Directors and colleagues in #teamCIMB and all stakeholders for your continued confidence and support to the success of CIMB Thai.

"CIMB Thai is well-equipped to enter 2017 with a clear roadmap to deliver better products and services to our existing and future customers."

CSR PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES

For the sixth straight year, CIMB THAI Bank has remained committed to carrying out csr projects and activities to give back to the Thai society. Education is the area we emphasised and consider to be a crucial foundation for national development. In 2016, we promoted ICT-based education through handing over of 10 computers and internet learning centres to 35 rural schools to broaden educational opportunities, upgrade educational standards for the youth in remote areas, and facilitate as well as strengthen the educational progress of the schools.

As one of the 15 CSR members of the Thai Bankers' Association, we have consistently participated in a financial literacy program called "Saving for Change," which aims at fostering knowledge on financial planning, financial discipline, and corruption countering culture on an integrated basis for people in society starting from their early age.

This should pave the way for sustainable economic development in the country going forward. We have also invited our instructors from such programs to assist in a seminar titled "4-Knows about Saving" to guide school children, parents and local communities in recording income and expenses for a better understanding of saving and finance at the family level.

Additionally, we have continuously supported social and environmental protection.

In 2016, six projects were carried out with focus on community involvement and building of learning centres, as well as passing on folk wisdom from real experiences of the elder generations to the younger generations. This has not only contributed to knowledge transfer, but also served as an aging therapy for the elderly.

Furthermore, we have invited our customers in various regions, including foundations, non-profit organisations, public and private agencies, and mass media to join as project partners.

These included the Thai Red Cross Society, Bodhivijalaya College, Srinakharinwirot University, Thai Television Channel 3 News Family, Media Associated Co., Ltd., Kingsman C.M.T.I. PCL and My Exhibit Co., Ltd.

Our staff and executive members also participated in various CSR projects and activities under the concept of “Once in a Lifetime as a Volunteer,” to promote awareness of social responsibility, strengthen their bond among one another, and engage with the organisation. These activities included Children’s Day celebration at Bon Kai Youth Centre, blood donation, Share of Love voluntary project for the disabled, and “School Adventure Camp” in Sisaket Province. Moreover, our people learned the way of life of farmers through activities hosted by the community, such as basket weaving with coconut palm fronds, mixing of bio-fertilizers, local desserts baking and so on.

ANTI-CORRUPTION

CIMB Thai Bank Public Company Limited has been officially certified to be a “CAC Member” by Thailand’s Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption. To ensure that the Bank has appropriate guidelines and procedures to counter corruption, we have established an Anti-Corruption Policy and Procedure to be strictly adopted by directors, executives and staff of the Bank and its subsidiaries. We have also reviewed the practices, structure of responsibilities, risk management system, internal control and audit systems to prevent any internal fraud. Apart from the enforcement of the above policy and procedure, we have implemented e-learning on this matter to enhance the staff’s knowledge and understanding.

Moreover, to prevent and reduce circumstances that may incur corruption risk, the Board of Directors has implemented a No Gift Policy to ensure that the Bank operates its business in accordance with corporate governance principles, integrity, transparency and avoidance of any conflicts of interests. Such principles have been adopted by the Bank and its financial business group in their operations and have been expanded to customers and business partners so that they are aware of the policy in place and are cooperating in the fight against corruption of all types. We have disseminated information on such policies on both our official website and CIMBNET, which is the Bank’s intranet.

As the Board of Directors is well aware of the accountability for all stakeholders, it has also instituted a Whistleblowing Policy with a channel put in place on the Bank’s website. Any report of concern or complaint regarding any wrongful acts in duty, internal fraud, and non-compliance by the employees with the Bank’s work rules, is made directly to the Chairman of the Board, Chairman of the Audit Committee, or the President and Chief Executive Officer. The Bank will then carry out an investigation. The whistleblowers or complainants will remain anonymous to prevent them from any possible adverse impacts thereafter.

FROM ASEAN COMMUNITY TO RCEP ... POISED TO WEATHER GLOBALISATION CHALLENGES

FROM ASEAN COMMUNITY TO RCEP

ASEAN member countries have for the past years deepened their cooperation in trade and investment as evident from their continuous reduction and removal of trade and investment barriers.

Some service sectors such as ICT, tourism and logistics now enjoy relaxed ownership limits of as high as 70%. While the intra-ASEAN liberalisation process is going on, ASEAN countries also look beyond their commitments in the ASEAN framework with aspirations to increase their integration with the global economies to make ASEAN a broader market.

In the past year, two fronts of economic integration developments were seen between ASEAN countries and those elsewhere, namely the Trans-Pacific Strategic Economic Partnership Agreement (TPP) and Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP).

TPP is a multilateral free trade agreement with a framework of comprehensive liberalisation issues and is widely accepted for its high standards. There are currently 12 members comprising of the United States, Canada, Mexico, Chile, Peru, Australia, New Zealand, Japan and four ASEAN countries, i.e. Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei and Vietnam. Thailand is not part of the pact so TPP among the said parties has been seen to make Thailand lose opportunity and face higher competition on the export front. However, the existing uncertainty over the integration of TPP following U.S. President Donald Trump's intention to withdraw the U.S. from the pact will help remove Thailand's disadvantage and maintain its competitiveness in such industries as electronics and appliances, automobile and parts, textile and apparel against Vietnam, and mechanical equipment against Malaysia. Thailand will remain a promising destination for investment.

RCEP is a regional framework of trade for economic cooperation between the 10 ASEAN countries and six partners --- China, Japan, South Korea, India, Australia and New Zealand. It is an extension developed from the five existing trade agreements ASEAN have earlier inked with the said six countries. They are ASEAN-China, ASEAN-Japan, ASEAN-Korea, ASEAN-India, and ASEAN-Australia-New Zealand agreements linking the economies of the region with the global supply chain and facilitating broader ranging trade and investment. It is anticipated that RCEP will be implemented and have concrete plans in 2017, making it the world's largest free trade area. RCEP member states' total GDP amounts to USD 22.8 trillion and their combined population is 3.3 billion or 50 percent of the world population. Their trade volume accounts for USD 10.7 trillion or roughly 30 percent of global trade.

POISED TO WEATHER GLOBALISATION CHALLENGES

As Thailand shares the borderlines and transportation links with the emerging and growing CLMV, investors can rely on Thailand as a production base to support their trade and investment. Thailand should take this opportunity to further foster trade cooperation with RCEP in order to relieve pressure from

CIMB GROUP'S OPERATIONS IN 9 OF 10 ASEAN COUNTRIES

potential exposure to 84% of the region's population and 88% of regional GDP

the U.S.'s changing trade policy which switches to supporting domestic manufacturers and lessening dependence on foreign markets. The U.S. policy is expected to hinder Thailand's economic growth both directly and indirectly because Thailand is a trade partner of not only the U.S., but also China in production for export to the U.S.

LOOKING FORWARD

The financial sector will remain a core business of ASEAN. Financial liberalisation in terms of integrated payment systems among ASEAN member countries, freer capital flows and capital market development through the linkage of capital markets in ASEAN countries have been drawing global investors' attention. During the past year, ASEAN central banks have commenced the operation of a local-currency settlement framework to promote the use of local currencies for settlement of bilateral trade. This will provide more convenience and reduce cost of transaction. It also promotes the role of banks in connection with the business sector.

Looking forward, CIMB Group with its network links in the ASEAN region believes that ASEAN will still be a region of open opportunities. ASEAN is dynamic and flexible and still needs cooperation from countries outside the region. Thus, CIMB Group is ready to support corporate and SME customers in their plans to make their presence or expand their businesses in ASEAN countries such as Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore, and Thailand by leveraging on CIMB Group's strengths in high expertise and product diversity.

CIMB Thai, as a member of CIMB Group, has all along actively supported Thai companies in their outward investments, especially in the neighbouring countries like Cambodia, Lao PDR, Myanmar and Vietnam, (CLMV) on account of their rapid economic development, abundant resources and low labour costs, as well as their entitlement to the generalised system of preferences (GSP) from several developed countries. This can help maintain or create the competitive advantage of CIMB Thai's customers in penetrating the CLMV countries, and beyond in their future endeavours.

THAI ECONOMY IN 2016 AND OUTLOOK FOR 2017

OVERVIEW OF THE THAI ECONOMY IN 2016

Thai economy in 2016 faced certain internal headwinds, especially the prolonged droughts which caused farm income to grow at a slow pace and weakened grassroots' purchasing power. This had a bearing on SMEs' business operations and purchasing power of consumers in the agricultural sector.

However since the end of the third quarter, farm income and consumers' purchasing power has picked up driven by the easing drought situation. Thai economic growth prospects in 2017 are expected from SMEs which have started to enjoy positive factors and should stimulate the economic expansion. Challenges lying ahead for Thailand will come from external uncertainties. The US's trade protectionist policy of the new US President, China's slowing economy, and the prevailing money and capital market volatility amidst the upward trend of the Fed funds rate and the oil price hike could more or less impact Thailand's economic stability.

OUTLOOK FOR 2017

Thailand's economy in 2017 is forecasted to grow further, though at a decelerated pace. Interest rates have to be kept at low levels to support the economy. Thai entrepreneurs are recommended to take cautious steps in their operations. Although the policy rates will remain constant, the costs of funding through the capital markets may go up following the rising trend of bond yields to cope with the tightening liquidity caused by capital outflows. Investors should make an early decision to raise funds through the bond markets during the period when funding costs are still low to avoid a higher cost burden afterward.

With consideration of the economic challenges lying ahead, CIMB Thai's Research Office views that the rising oil prices should support the prediction of the hike in purchasing power this year. Normally, oil prices move in line with commodity prices and prices of agricultural products. However, purchasing power may not move up so fast due to high household debt which restricts the acceleration of consumption. In the meantime, the prevailing low private investment and unresolved structural issues in the manufacturing sector, like excess production capacity, lack of labor skill development and low production innovation, which have long discouraged additional private investment, could further weaken the country's long-term competitiveness.

Another inevitable challenge is that encountered by Thai exports which account for 60% of GDP. Although US President Donald Trump has not directly taken trade protectionist measures against Thailand, and Thai exports to the US should improve following US's accelerated economic trends, the US stance towards China could hinder Thailand's exports in supply chain, most of which are consumer goods, and other ASEAN members' exports of raw materials to China in 2017.

Under the current circumstances, Thai private entities, especially labour-intensive ones and those applying basic production technology should get prepared to move their bases more to CLMV (Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, and Vietnam). So far, several large corporate businesses have already made their presence there, and SMEs should follow suit by jointly forming clusters and supply chains to serve large businesses. They may otherwise upgrade their production technologies to facilitate linkage of their supply chain with large businesses or explore new markets with growth potential, such as India, Australia and the Middle East to fully exploit the recovering global economy when commodity prices should improve to offset the rising trade protectionism.

Looking forward, despite the expected increase in the US Fed funds rate twice, i.e. in the middle and end of 2017, Thailand's interest rates should remain constant throughout the year. Meanwhile, Thai baht is forecasted to weaken further against the US dollar due to the Fed funds rate hike, and hence resulting in capital outflows. Anyway, the weakening baht could be a boost to Thai exports.

All in all, Thailand's economy in 2016 grew by 3.2%. For 2017, Thai economic growth is predicted at 3.2%, the same as 2016, mainly due to the persisting global market volatility. Domestic consumption, though improving, still cannot offset the external pressures. Thus, public sector investment and tourism will remain to be the main engine to drive the Thai economy.

CIMB THAI'S 2017 STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

The Bank's strategic priorities for 2017 are anchored on the 5 C's – Customer, Culture, Compliance, Cost and Capital.

- Culture – Build a better CIMB and focus on being a performance driven organisation.
- Compliance – Be prepared for elevated anti-money laundering standards post Financial Action Task Force (FATF).
- Cost – Realise cost savings and improve productivity.
- Capital – Focus on risk weighted asset optimization.

CONSUMER BANKING GROUP

Consumer Banking Group (CB) enjoyed another highly successful year in 2016 in terms of strengthening staff and target customers' relationship and expansion of customer base. We brought about customer experience with services beyond expectation such as E-Saving account opening service through 64 AIS shops nationwide. More importantly, we have been the first and only one bank to establish a mini branch in a 7-Eleven store which enable customers to get better access to banking services. We also continued providing advisory service on wealth management in addition to the diverse product range to cater to individual customer needs. Positive feedback was received from customers and we've experienced an increase in the number of affluent customers and assets under management (AUM).

In view of loan provision, we have recorded a consistent growth in our quality loan portfolio on the back of tightened loan application criteria allowing for efficient screening of loan applicants. Furthermore, we moved another step ahead with the offering of off-site instant approval of loans via DSE Tablet for heightened customer experience and convenience.

CB's performance in 2016:

- Total operating income was THB 7,134 million, THB 1,135 million higher than that in 2015.
- Net interest income (NII) from all products amounted to THB 5,830 million, a 22% growth year-on-year.
- Profit before tax was THB 1,500 million, THB 1,320 million higher than that in 2015.
- Total loan approval amounted to THB 102,860 million, an increase of 9.9% year-on-year.

TRANSACTION BANKING GROUP

CIMB Thai's Transaction Banking Group (TBG) provides corporate clients and financial institutions with an array of products and services, covering cash management, trade finance and a range of securities services, including security agent and facility agent, escrow account, trustee, custody, and other related services. With CIMB Group's strong ASEAN platform and network, we are well positioned to support and deliver transactional flows across ASEAN and beyond to meet the needs of aspiring enterprises.

Forging ahead toward Target 2018 (T18), TBG made significant progress in 2016 on enhancing product cost competitiveness and profitability, delivering product innovations, and growing operating account base. Under the Bank Negara Malaysia's and the Bank of Thailand's jointly established Local Currency Trade Settlement Framework, CIMB Thai has been among the three Thai banks officially designated as an Appointed Cross Currency Dealer (ACCD) to facilitate ringgit and baht settlement for trade of goods and services between Malaysia and Thailand. The framework has allowed for the launch of new MYR cash management and trade finance products, which benefit Thai importers and exporters trading with Malaysia and further, putting CIMB Thai in the country's top position with the highest MYR ACCD trade flow volume.

Regarding securities services, we are well recognised and are ranked no. 2 in bond registrar services by number of bond issues. The roll-out of BizChannel@CIMB, CIMB Group's premier regional Internet banking platform, has enabled the clients, regardless of which CIMB Group member bank they have their accounts with, to easily access online banking services with the same customer experience. Meanwhile, our cash management services has earned the trust of leading local and multinational companies, such as LG Electronics (Thailand) Co., Ltd., etc.

For 2017, CIMB Thai's TBG will continue to expand its client base and revenue base. Our focus is on client acquisition and extension of digital capabilities targeting ASEAN export/import segments. We aim to keep pace with market trends and strengthen our role as Thailand's leading ASEAN bank.

WHOLESALE BANKING GROUP

Corporate Banking

Corporate Banking Group (CBG) of CIMB Thai provides financial services to a diverse range of business sectors including, commercial, manufacturing, property development and transportation. As most clients have had a long-time relationship with the Bank, we act as their strategic business partner that helps and supports them toward strong and sustainable business growth. We offer our clients business and investment opportunities through CIMB Group's regional network.

In 2016, the Thai economy expanded slightly higher than in 2015. However, certain challenges prevailed amidst the global economic slowdown creating vulnerable situations in several countries, including Thailand. Thailand was hit by droughts, faltering commodity prices and weak grass-root purchasing power, causing trouble to both small and medium businesses and affecting business expansion of large clients. Therefore, CBG focused on maintaining the quality of existing loan portfolios, with prudent consideration of risks in new loan approvals, and close and regular follow-up of clients. Moreover, we studied business and industry conditions in collaboration with Research Office and with cooperation from Risk Management Group we aimed to expand our business in low risk sectors. We focused on large clients with a strong financial position and investment plans into ASEAN, and those with cross-selling opportunities. These include big projects which generate comprehensive income from interest, fee and financial advisory income, and other income from transactional banking and hedging products, as well as equity and debt underwriting.

In 2016, total revenues of Wholesale Banking Group (covering both Corporate Banking and Investment Banking) decreased by approximately 5%, attributable to an increase in proportion of net interest income (NII) from 53% to 57% of total revenue, up by 2% year-on-year, as a result of lending and deposit base expansion, and a decrease in non-net interest income (Non-NII) by approximately 13% due to large clients' project slowdown taking a wait-and-see approach toward 2017. Most revenues came from significant client groups entrusting us as their main bank, including those with ASEAN aspirations, which is in line with our strategy and theme: "Be More Relevant to Important Clients & Accelerate Our ASEAN Initiatives."

In addition to local income generation, Wholesale Banking Group was successful in expanding business to other countries in ASEAN, particularly CLMV, through CIMB Group which has strengths in capital, professionals and partnering networks in ASEAN. We completed business deals with big corporate clients who have large investments both locally and regionally, especially in ASEAN, as we could quickly provide solutions and services that met their expectations. The Bank worked closely with other CIMB Group members in continuously expanding income base in other countries and recorded a cross-border income growth of 12%.

For 2017, CBG will focus on generating firm and consistent income, particularly recurring income and income from cross-selling. Our strategy is to reach out to selected major client groups and to re-align our lending portfolio along with a team restructuring in line with target industry type. This aims to boost efficiency, reduce redundancy, control cost effectively, and manage return on investment properly. Furthermore, we will keep expanding our business and service in ASEAN and increase business with foreign clients investing in Thailand with cooperation from other CIMB Group members.

Investment Banking

2016 was a challenging year for our business operation in the backdrop of minimal economic growth and several negative factors both internally and externally as stated before. Several target clients postponed their merger & acquisition and SET-listing plans and will resume those plans when market condition improves. However, Investment Banking Group (IBG) continued carrying on related processes as preparation for a successful completion of transactions in 2017, which we expect is when major transactions will take place.

We continued reinforcing our teams by collaborating with CIMB Group. We have sector specialists available to provide knowledge and insights of each industry so we can offer comprehensive financial services, including strategic and business operation advisory service, to clients. As a result, we managed to strengthen our relationships and add-value while enhancing competitiveness through innovation of financial products.

In the fourth quarter of 2016, IBG successfully pushed through transactions together with CIMB Group at both national and regional levels, such as a co-underwriter and initial purchaser of WHA Premium Growth Freehold and Leasehold Real Estate Investment Trust (Second Capital Increase) (WHART) worth THB 3,162 million and co-underwriter and initial purchaser for the IPO of Banpu Power Public Company Limited (BPP) worth THB 13,618 million.

The collaboration and synergy among Corporate Banking Group, Investment Banking Group and CIMB network in ASEAN will contribute to the Bank's potential as an important bank to our important clients, which is another progress toward being the clients' business partner in achieving their ASEAN aspirations.

COMMERCIAL BANKING GROUP

Commercial Banking Group (CMG) provides comprehensive financial solutions for business customers with annual sales turnover of up to THB 3 billion through CIMB Thai's business centres situated in strategic locations nationwide. We have also encouraged our customers to expand their businesses into ASEAN, leveraging on CIMB Group's strong network and capabilities.

2016 was a year of transformation and fundamental-building. Business customers were segmented into small business, medium business, and middle market according to their sales turnover. This has enabled systematic offering of products and services that best suited each segment. In addition, we have re-designed the loan approval process and standards to align with the new structure and to be comparable to peers. As a result, the new process has been more effective and standardised, with a shorter turnaround time.

CMG's business performance in 2016 declined in line with the slowing domestic and global economies. There was dampened demand for business loans and debt servicing capability, especially in the agro-industry, with high NPL recorded since the first quarter. Therefore, we accordingly gave priority to asset quality management, rather than market expansion, by developing systematic loan quality tracking and regular portfolio health checks so that the Bank would be able to take timely action and prevent new NPLs.

Looking forward to 2017, we will strengthen our business base with a focus on maintaining satisfactory portfolio quality, geographical and target industry lending, and ongoing process improvement, together with enhancement of employees' potential to respond efficiently to clients' demand and promote sustainable growth in our commercial banking operation.

Bank Public Company Limited and Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited. With innovative debt capital products and solutions, we also acted as the sole lead arranger and lead underwriter of a subordinated perpetual debenture for Ananda Development Public Company Limited, a leading property developer in Thailand.

Looking forward, CIMB Thai's Treasury Group will remain committed to developing innovative products and services to fulfil our customer's need in the areas of wealth management and risk management. We will continue to work with the highest level of professionalism and take into account the rapidly changing business environment in our undertakings.

LIQUIDITY RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

Liquidity risk is defined as the current and prospective risk to the Bank's earnings, shareholder funds or reputation arising from the inability to effectively meet the present and future (both anticipated and unanticipated) funding needs or regulatory obligations when they are due, which may adversely affect the daily operations and incur unacceptable losses. Liquidity risk arises from mismatches in the timing of cash flows.

The objective of the Bank's liquidity risk management is to ensure that the Bank can meet cash obligation in a timely and cost-effective manner. To this end, the Liquidity Risk Management Policy is to maintain high quality and well diversified portfolios of liquid assets and sources of funds under both business-as-usual and stress conditions. Due to the large delivery network and market focus, the Bank is to maintain a diversified core deposit base comprising of savings, and demand and term deposits, thus providing a stable large funding base. The Bank maintains some buffers of liquidity throughout the year to ensure safe and sound operations from a strategic, structural and tactical perspective.

The day-to-day responsibility for liquidity risk management and control is delegated to the Asset and Liability Management Committee (ALCO) which meets at least once a month to discuss the liquidity risk and funding profile/plan of the Bank. ALCO is responsible for the overall management and oversight of liquidity and review/recommendation of liquidity risk management policy before seeking approval from the Board of Directors. ALCO is also in charge of approving liquidity risk tolerance. Asset and Liability Management (ALM) Team, which is responsible for the independent monitoring of the liquidity risk profile, works closely with Treasury Group in the surveillance of market conditions. Business units are responsible for establishing and maintaining strong business relations with their respective depositors and key funding sources. Treasury Group acts as a global fund dealing on a necessity or contingency basis. The Bank has to prudently manage the liquidity position to meet the daily operation needs. It measures and forecasts the respective cash flows arising from the maturity profiles of assets, liabilities, off balance sheet commitments and derivatives over a variety of time horizons under business-as-usual and stress conditions on a regular basis. For companies in the Bank's financial business group, liquidity risk management is decentralised. To support their liquidity, the Bank may consider and approve liquidity lines to them as per respective credit lines approved by the Board of Directors.

The Bank will continue to emphasise and improve its retail customer acquisition to match its assets expansion. The Bank's liquidity management strategy is to drive the accumulation of current accounts and saving accounts (CASA), as well as retail term deposits, as more economical and stable sources of funding, while using the more price sensitive corporate deposits, bills of exchange, short-term debentures, and structured products as a means to balance out the funding and liquidity of the Bank. The Bank has designated functional teams to be responsible for the proper marketing strategy for each segment and to strengthen the Bank's relationship with the clients to sustain long-term deposit growth. In addition, the Bank has in place an early warning system which is closely monitored, together with a contingency funding plan, to alert and enable the management to take effective and efficient measures during a liquidity crunch and in prevailing adverse market conditions.

COLLATERAL POLICY

The Bank's lending policies are the primary basis of assessing the creditworthiness of the borrower's ability to repay loan obligations, most often from cash flows generated through normal business operations and other primary sources of repayment. Nevertheless, collateral also represents an important component of many credit transactions because it is a secondary source of repayment and will help alleviate loss in the event of default. The different types of collateral which the Bank accepts are deposits, government bond, debt and equity instruments, land, construction and machinery, etc. The loan to collateral value ratio will vary based upon the risk level of each credit product, the borrower's creditworthiness and liquidity of collaterals. The Bank has established a collateral valuation policy to ensure effective risk management as well as to comply with Bank of Thailand's guidelines. When the collateral is taken, it is important to follow the Bank's policy comprising of among others, a valuation policy and valuation frequency.

DEBT MONITORING GUIDELINES AND FOLLOW-UP PROCEDURES

The Bank has set up the guidelines for closely managing and monitoring watch-list and problem loan accounts in order to speedily resolve its problem loans and standardise the problem loan monitoring process. The guidelines prescribe a monitoring process for watch-list accounts, special mentioned and substandard or worse accounts and the guidelines will be revised periodically to ensure their effectiveness and relevance. In addition to mandatory debt classification in accordance with the Bank of Thailand's guidelines, the Bank has established additional qualitative criteria for early classification of debt with signs of deterioration prior to default. For pre-NPL accounts to be effectively managed, an early warning process has been set up as guidelines for relationship managers to take early action in identifying accounts with potential problem and to develop a proper action plan to solve the problem so that risk to the Bank can be mitigated. The accounts with potential problems are put under watch list and are classified by degree of their problem and risk level into three groups, i.e. watch list – low, watch list – medium and watch list – high. The accounts under watch list – low remain under normal class while those under watch list – medium and high are classified as special mention. These pre-NPL as well as NPL accounts with TDR not yet finalised and with exposure more than THB 10 million, are regularly reported to the Asset Quality Committee (AQC).

AQC was set up to closely monitor development of pre-NPL accounts, NPL accounts with TDR not yet finalised and other accounts requiring close attention. AQC provide guidance to relationship managers on proper actions to be taken against these pre-NPL accounts to quickly and effectively solve the problem before they become NPL, as well as to provide proper solution for debt restructuring of NPL accounts to minimise loss and maximise recovery to the Bank.

DEBT RESTRUCTURING POLICY

The Bank has set a policy to undertake debt restructuring for borrowers who have cooperated with the Bank as well as have potential to comply with the conditions newly agreed upon. The objective of the policy is to ensure that the Bank and the borrowers have mutually benefited from the debt restructuring, that is, the Bank has maximum opportunity to recover the debt or has minimum possible loss, while the borrowers are able to continue their business with incurrance of some loss on their part. The Bank will undertake debt restructuring work in accordance with the Bank of Thailand's regulations and such work will be undertaken prudently so that it does not avoid the requirements regarding debt reclassification, additional provisioning and suspension of income recognition of accrued interest.

Debt restructuring is undertaken with consideration to criteria, process and method provided for debt restructuring, including debtor analysis, approval, preparation of agreement, follow-up and assessment. Such process must be in compliance with the applicable rules and regulations of the authorities and the Bank. The responsibility for coordinating debt restructuring activities lies primarily with the internal work unit of the Bank. However, a certified and experienced third party specialised in this area may be assigned to provide financial advisory services or undertake debt restructuring for the Bank. Debt restructuring conditions are subject to approval of the Board or the Credit Committee or other persons as authorised by the Bank.

POLICY ON ASSET CLASSIFICATION AND LOAN LOSS PROVISION

The Bank has complied with the Bank of Thailand's regulations, which require asset classification and loan loss provision to be set at the rate for each asset category as prescribed by Bank of Thailand Notification No. SorNorSor. 5/2559: criteria for debt classification and provisioning of financial institutions, dated 10 June 2016 or as amended by the Bank of Thailand from time to time. However, the Bank's internal guidelines are more stringent than the regulatory requirements, with combination of the qualitative and quantitative criteria prescribed by the Bank of Thailand, and prudent adoption of a final classification which is based on the weaker result of the two sets of criteria to reflect real risk level of the debtor.

In addition to specific provision, the Bank may set aside general provision as appropriate in order to be a buffer against any unexpected losses from economic cycle, etc.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CORPORATE BRANDING ACTIVITIES IN 2016

Branding CIMB Thai as an ASEAN bank, with a string of marketing activities to get business results, is the approach we have taken all along to bring brand awareness and customer experience to our target customers. In 2016, we launched a campaign titled "Are You Ready for ASEAN?" to accentuate the strength of our ASEAN franchise with a diverse range of financial products together with professional teams ready to give advice and provide services to both individual and business customers. Furthermore, we continued to hold an activity to celebrate ASEAN Day on 6 August 2016 with a bicycle race called “One Ride One ASEAN” organised for the second year at Pakthor District of Ratchaburi Province, in which more than 1,200 Thais and foreigners participated. This activity helped to promote our brand as an ASEAN bank and aligned to the official implementation of ASEAN Economic Community (AEC).

Besides brand enhancement, we launched several proactive marketing and sales promotion campaigns on financial products, such as campaigns targeting CIMB Preferred and mutual fund customers, credit card promotion programs on tourism, promotion of online applications for personal loans, and housing loans and credit card as additional channel to provide more convenience to customers. We also joined five Money Expo events in Bangkok, Nakhon Ratchasima, Udonthani, Chiang Mai and Songkhla (Hat Yai) under the “Financial Trainer” theme to expand our nation-wide customer base.

Meanwhile, we have given importance to publicising and updating our business progress to promote our image and professionalism in respect to business development, product innovations and diversity of service channels. In 2016, we launched MYR-THB transaction service, and opened a Sub Branch at Sitabutr which is located in a 7-Eleven store, marking the first-ever Thai commercial bank branch located inside a convenience store. This received considerable public attention and was the talk-of-the-town topic. Moreover, our Research Office’s domestic and global economic research and analysis drew great attention from the media, with topics such as UK’s withdrawal from the Eurozone (Brexit) and the U.S. presidential election, etc.

For 2017, our brand and business positioning is themed “FORWARD”, as set by CIMB Group, reflecting our readiness through our teams, network and financial products to support our customers in moving “FORWARD” towards their target.

STRATEGIC RISK

Strategic risk is the risk of losses as a result of insufficient consideration of possible threats to the Bank's activities, insufficiently substantiated prospective business where the Bank could gain advantage over its competitors, lacking or incomplete provision of necessary resources and organisational measures that are required to achieve strategic objectives.

The major goal of strategic risk management is to maintain the risks taken by the Bank at levels determined in accordance with its strategic tasks and to ensure safety of assets and capital by minimisation of possible losses. The Bank defines a risk appetite and it is subject to approval by the Board of Directors. It uses the following strategic risk management methods: business planning, financial planning, monitoring of approved plan implementation, market analysis, SWOT analysis and readjustment of plans where necessary. Senior management and the Board of Directors are closely involved and engaged throughout the formulation process. Subsequent to the implementation stage, the Board of Directors and designated Management Committee regularly monitor and review actual results against the targets and plans.

Key strategic risks can be summarised as follows:

1. Risk resulting from inappropriate organisational structure and management

The Bank is convinced that a proper organisational structure is one of the critical factors in achieving desired targets. Adhering to best governance and practice, committees and units are established with prescribed functions and responsibilities as well as proper check-and-balance procedures to ensure the integrity of the undertakings and the deliverability of business plans.

2. Risk resulting from economic volatility and competition

Economic conditions and competition are two external factors of which the Bank must remain vigilant. Implementation of business plans under unfavourable external environments may lead to the Bank performing under its target. To mitigate risk emerging from operating environments, the Bank's Research Office, together with the Strategy Division, closely monitor and analyse both economic conditions and competitive environments. In particular, analysis and assessment of peer banks are conducted on a regular basis. Subsequent research and strategic findings and recommendations will then be reported to relevant committees for consideration and further action as needed.

3. Risk resulting from capital inadequacy

Capital adequacy is a critical composition of sound risk management and mitigation mechanism. This includes the maintenance of adequate capital under both normal conditions and "extreme but plausible events" as resulted from the stress test exercise. The capital management plan, together with prescribed action plans, are formulated and set in place to ensure prudent positioning of the Bank's capital level as required by law. One particular measure, the CAR trigger (capital adequacy ratio trigger) is employed by Strategy, Finance Group and Risk Management Group as early warning indicators in monitoring and maintaining capital adequacy.

CREDIT RISK

Credit risk arises from clients or counterparties who are not able to or are not willing to fulfill their contractual obligations under loan agreements or other credit facility agreements. Credit risk results in the deterioration of credit quality and affects the Bank's profitability and capital fund. The overriding objective of credit risk management at the Bank is to create value for shareholders by ensuring that the revenue is generated in balance with the acceptable credit risk appetite. Under the Credit Risk Management Policy, the Bank has put in place credit risk management process, techniques and controls to maintain a check and balance system with clearly defined responsibilities for relationship managers, credit analysts, credit risk assessors, credit approvers and risk management officers. The Risk Management Framework for the Bank and its subsidiaries is continuously enhanced to support the business and to ensure the overall adherence to the risk management policy of the Bank and CIMB Group.

The Bank continuously reviews and improves risk assessment tools for different types of clients and in line with the growth of portfolios. The tools include corporate rating tool that was developed and implemented for corporate clients, SME rating model for SME clients, insurance model for life & non-life bancassurance customers, specialised lending rating model for specialised customer groups and credit scoring tools and system for retail, secured and unsecured loans as well as hire purchase. Credit rating and credit scoring tools are implemented in systems to ensure efficiency of rating/scoring and model performance monitoring. Moreover, the Bank has also put in place Acquisition Quality Trigger (AQT) to closely monitor the quality of new acquisition of retail customers more effectively.

Non-performing loan (NPL) is one of the key risks affecting profitability and capital adequacy of the Bank. As such, we closely and prudently monitor and manage NPL, thus allowing for maintaining of adequate provisions for bad debts. In addition, as a pre-emptive measure, problem accounts are proactively monitored and managed before they turn into NPL. For portfolio risk management, particular attention is given to credit concentration risks by imposing appropriate risk limits, i.e. country risk limits, internal lending limits and business sector limits with RAG (Red, Amber & Green) indicators used to monitor concentration risk as well as to provide a better visual guidance to credit granting decision, i.e. Red – "Restricted," Amber – "Selective," and Green – "Grow." The Bank also performs stress tests on credit risk to evaluate the impact on the Bank in the event of unfavorable economic and financial conditions, both in the plausible scenario and extreme scenario.

The Bank determines and reviews risk appetite or acceptable risk level considering the forecasted economy in each year, to be the guideline of business expansion and management. Risk appetite has been monitored on a monthly basis and reported to RMC, BRC, and the Board of Directors.

MARKET RISK

Market risk is defined as any fluctuation in the market value of the trading transaction or investment exposure. Therefore, market risk occurs when the Bank undertakes transactions which are exposed to fluctuation in market parameters such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, securities prices in stock and commodity markets, and may negatively affect both the revenue and capital position of the Bank. The Bank employs a Market Risk Policy to ensure that the rules and procedures are in compliance with both the regulatory requirements and the Bank's policy. The Bank has a work unit, independent from risk originating units, to monitor and control market risk. It also regularly assesses and determines the capital reserves for market risk to comply with the Bank of Thailand's regulations.

Market risks include the following:

1. Interest rate risk

The interest rate risk in transactions in the trading book are under the supervision of RMC and the framework prescribed by the Board of Directors. The calculation of fair value for trading transactions is performed on a daily basis in order to monitor the mark-to-market profits and losses. The daily risk status reports are also independently produced by the Risk Management Unit. The one basis point shift (PV01) limit, Greek Limit, Value-at-Risk (VaR) Limit and stop loss limit are set to control the risks associated with movements in interest rates which might affect the revenue and capital reserves of the Bank.

2. Foreign exchange risk

In managing risk from changes in foreign exchange and maintaining risk at the level prescribed by the Bank's policy, the Bank tries to match the currency of the funding source with that of loans, or to employ derivative instruments for foreign exchange hedging. Risk limits are determined by product and risk type using approaches such as FX net open position limit, Greek Limit, Value-at-Risk (VaR) limit and stop loss limit. Daily mark-to-market on the foreign exchange is also conducted. Furthermore, stress testing is periodically conducted of which the results are thoroughly analysed.

3. Market risk of equity securities and commodity related transactions

The Bank does not invest in trading equity securities other than investments in subsidiaries or affiliated companies, common shares as resulted from loan restructuring, and property funds which have high potential return and sound management. For commodity derivatives, the Bank fully hedges against commodity risk on a back-to-back basis, therefore market risk exposure on trading equity securities or commodity has never materialised.

LIQUIDITY RISK

Liquidity risk is defined as the current and prospective risk to the Bank's earnings, shareholder funds or reputation arising from the inability to effectively meet the present and future (both anticipated and unanticipated) funding needs or regulatory obligations when they are due, which may adversely affect the daily operations and incur unacceptable losses. Liquidity risk arises from mismatches in the timing of cash flows.

The objective of the Bank's liquidity risk management is to ensure that the Bank can meet the cash obligation in a timely and cost-effective manner. To this end, the Liquidity Risk Management Policy is to maintain high quality and well diversified portfolios of liquid assets and sources of funds under both business-as-usual and stress conditions. Due to the large delivery network and market focus, the Bank is to maintain a diversified core deposit base comprising of savings, and demand and term deposits, thus providing a stable large funding base. The Bank maintains some buffers of liquidity throughout the year to ensure safe and sound operations from a strategic, structural and tactical perspective.

The day-to-day responsibility for liquidity risk management and control is delegated to Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) which meets at least once a month to discuss the liquidity risk and funding profile/plan of the Bank. ALCO is responsible for the overall management and oversight of liquidity and the review/recommendation of liquidity risk management policy before seeking approval from the Board of Directors. ALCO is also in charge of approving liquidity risk tolerance. The Asset Liability Management (ALM) Team, which is responsible for the independent monitoring of the liquidity risk profile, works closely with Treasury Group in the surveillance of market conditions. Business units are responsible for establishing and maintaining strong business relations with their respective depositors and key funding sources. Treasury Group acts as a global fund dealing on a necessity or contingency basis. The Bank has to prudently manage the liquidity position to meet its daily operation needs. It measures and forecasts the respective cash flows arising from the maturity profiles of assets, liabilities, off balance sheet commitments and derivatives over a variety of time horizons under business-as-usual and stress conditions on a regular basis. For companies in the Bank's financial business group, liquidity risk management is decentralised. To support their liquidity, the Bank may consider and approve liquidity lines to them as per respective credit lines approved by the Board of Directors.

Liquidity risk undertaken by the Bank is governed by a set of established liquidity risk appetite limits and Management Action Triggers (MATs). The limits and MATs are established to alert management to potential and emerging liquidity pressures. The Bank's Liquidity Risk Management Policy together with assumptions and thresholds levels are reviewed on an annual basis, or when there is a significant change in response to regulatory changes, and changing business needs and market conditions. Liquidity positions are monitored on a daily basis and complied with internal risk thresholds and regulatory requirements for liquidity risk.

The Bank's contingency funding plan is a place to alert and to enable the management to act effectively during a liquidity crisis and under adverse market conditions. The plan consists of two key components: Early Warning System (EWS) and Funding Crisis Management Team (FCMT). EWS is designed to alert the Bank's management whenever the liquidity position may be at risk. It provides the Bank with the analytical framework to detect a likely liquidity problem and to evaluate the funding needs and strategies in advance of a liquidity crisis. EWS is made up of a set of indicators (monitored against pre-determined thresholds) that can reliably signal the financial strength and stability of the Bank. Consolidated stress test, including liquidity stress test, is performed on a semi-annual basis to identify vulnerable areas in the portfolio, gauge the finance impact and enable management to take pre-emptive actions. Three scenarios, namely Bank Idiosyncratic Crisis (BISC), Market Wide Crisis (MWC) and Combined Crisis (CC), are modeled. The assumptions used, including run-off rates on deposits, drawdown rates on undrawn commitments, and haircuts for marketable securities, are documented and the test results are submitted to ALCO, RMC and the Board of Directors. The test results to date have indicated that the Bank possesses sufficient liquidity capacity to meet the liquidity requirements under various stress test conditions.

INTEREST RATE RISK IN BANKING BOOK

Interest Rate Risk in Banking Book (IRRBB) is defined as the current and potential risk to the Banks' earnings and economic value arising from movement in interest rates.

The Bank manages the exposure of fluctuations in interest rates through policies established by ALCO. IRRBB undertaken by the Bank is governed by an established risk appetite that defines the acceptable level of risk to be assumed by the Bank. The risk appetite is established by the Board of Directors. ALCO is the Board of Directors' delegated committee which reports to BRC. With the support from the ALM Team under Risk Management Group and Capital and Balance Sheet Management (CBSM) Division under Finance Group, ALCO is responsible for the review and monitoring of the balance sheet, business and hedging strategies, the overall interest rate risk profile and ensuring that such risk profile is within the established risk appetite. Treasury Group is responsible for the day-to-day management of exposure and gapping activities, including execution of hedging strategies.

IRRBB is measured by Economic Value of Equity (EVE) sensitivity which measures the long-term impact of sudden interest rate movement across the full maturity spectrum of the Bank's assets and liabilities. It defines and quantifies interest rate risk as the change in the economic value of equity (e.g. present value of potential future earnings and capital) as asset portfolio values and liability portfolio value would rise and fall with changes in interest rates. This measure helps the Bank to quantify the risk and impact on capital with focus on current banking book positions. The Bank's EVE sensitivity is computed using the re-pricing gap analysis method to analyse the interest rate movement of assets and liabilities in different time periods. The Bank also evaluates the effect of interest rate risk on the loss of earnings as a result of changes in interest rates under both business-as-usual and stress conditions.

The Management Action Triggers (MATs) are set as a pre-emptive measure to control risk arising from the effect on net interest income (NII) as well as EVE sensitivity. The analytical results of NII and EVE are reported to ALCO, BRC and the Board of Directors on a monthly basis.

The Bank manages interest rate risk by adjusting the assets and liabilities structure to be in line with forecast interest rate trends, with consideration to changes in NII and EVE. Results of the stress testing are used to determine alternative balance sheet strategies to be more suited to the business environment in order to achieve the business return targets under acceptable level of risk.

OPERATIONAL RISK

Operational risk is the risk of direct or indirect loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people, systems, or from external events. Other risk factors include the lack of corporate governance and management incompetence. All these factors can negatively affect the Bank's financial performance and capital fund.

In order to effectively manage operational risks, the Bank has set appropriate policies, processes and procedures that not only bring the Bank in line with international standards, but also contribute to enhancing transparency and good governance. In this respect, RMC has been given the authority to establish policies and procedures which correspond with international best practice and to make recommendations to the Board of Directors or BRC as delegated for approval and deployment as the Bank's policies and procedures. To increase effectiveness, the Bank has also appointed Operational Risk Management Committee (ORC) to discuss, deliberate, assess and give advice on all issues relating to operational risks including fraud and covering key cause factors – human, process, system and external factors.

CIMB Thai's fundamental principle on operational risk is that the responsibility to manage operational risks associated with business ventures, products, services, and systems lines with line management and all staff performing the operations. Their responsibility includes compliance with all internal and external laws, regulations, policies and standards. In so doing, a Designated Compliance & Operational Risk Officer (DCORO) is appointed within each work unit to coordinate and assist in building the risk culture in their own area and to ensure that operational risk management policies and procedures are well implemented and complied with. The Operational Risk Management Team is responsible for developing tools, system and process for identifying, assessing, controlling, reporting, and monitoring operational risks in compliance with bank-wide operational risk policies, and international standards.

Each business unit in the Bank and its subsidiaries are required to manage their operational risks along the following lines:

1. Risk control self-assessment

Each business unit is required to conduct risk control self-assessment and report the results of which regularly to Risk Management Group. These reports will be used in assessing and analysing the overall operational risk exposure and providing a basis for determining corrective actions and follow-up. This makes it incumbent upon individual business units to review regularly that their work processes are structured and managed, thereby mitigating operational mishaps and enhancing their ability to address the problems in a coherent and timely manner. In this context, continuous attention has been given to providing effective and efficient oversight across the organisation, including defining a clear scope of responsibilities and approval authority, establishing checks and balances, and securing data and information. Particular attention has also been given to ensure the continuity of business activities in accordance with international standards while enhancing sound corporate governance.

2. Loss event data reports

The Bank requires every business unit to submit loss event report through designated channels. The information captured by each unit is for the determination of the real cause(s) of the event and where necessary to recommend enhancement to the existing operational controls or workflow to ensure the lessons are learnt and such event will not recur in the future. These reports also facilitate statistical analysis of developing models for calculating operational risk capital requirements.

3. Key risk indicators (KRIs)

KRI is a tool to monitor and manage key operational risk exposures over time to predict upcoming changes in operational risk profiles. KRI provides early warning signals to management on changes to the risk environment and the effectiveness of control. This is a forward looking tool to facilitate monitoring and management of key risks before they translate into operational losses. Hence, Management will be able to take appropriate actions to mitigate the risks beforehand.

4. Control issue management (CIM)

Control issues are defined as gaps in the Bank's control environment. Inadequately-designed controls or controls that are not operating effectively may result in a residual risk beyond the risk appetite. To manage control issues, the Bank developed the Control Issues Management Policy which provides an approach to systematically capture control issues and provides rules for robust management or mitigation. The purpose of the policy is to ensure that control issues are captured and classified consistently, and that there is robust governance over their closure or acceptance.

5. New product approval process

The Bank has focused on developing new products or improving the operation process. For such purpose, the Bank enforces a stricter approval process in identification, assessment and control of all relevant risks, i.e. credit, market and operational risks. All products are subject to a suitable review process before they can be signed off by the working groups and relevant business units before submission for approval and subsequent market launch.

6. Complaint management process

The Bank is aware of reputation and customer satisfaction risks. It has set up complaint units and proper procedures to handle customer complaints as a way to manage such risks. Customers can direct their grievances to any of these units, namely Office of the President's Complaint Centre, CIMB Thai Care Centre, CIMB Thai Facebook page, or CIMB Thai branches. The complaint issues via the aforesaid channels will be gathered by the Office of the President which performs as a complaint management centre.

Office of the President (OFP) will consider and send each complaint issue to the work unit being complained. The complained work unit will investigate the issue, seek a solution thereto, and prepare and send out explanatory letters directly to the complainant. For any complaint made via a government agency, OFP will be the unit preparing and sending out letters to such government agency notifying them of the solution and result thereof. OFP will gather all customer complaints and their respective solutions, and present them to the task force for acknowledgement and remedial actions. This process aims to improve customer satisfaction and prevent the recurrence of such incidents. Summary reports on customer complaints and solutions will regularly be prepared and submitted by OFP to the Management Committee and the Audit Committee on a monthly basis.

7. Business continuity plan

The Bank has developed and implemented business continuity management bank-wide and in subsidiaries to analyse the business impact of critical business functions. At least once a year, the Bank documents their business continuity plan based on the analysed result as well as exercises on business continuity plan/disaster recovery plan. This is to ensure that critical business functions can recover within a specified time in the event of a crisis, disaster or calamity disrupting the critical business functions. Business continuity management helps preserve the Bank's reputation and maintain customer confidence in the Bank's services.

8. Internal audit and compliance

The Bank has established an Internal Audit Division and Compliance Department as independent units to assist in auditing, monitoring, and directly reporting to the Audit Committee. The Internal Audit Division is responsible for examining and providing reasonable assurance that all Bank activities are effectively and efficiently managed and operating in line with good risk management and internal control principles. The Compliance Department oversee and monitor the Bank's business operation to ensure compliance with all relevant laws and regulatory requirements.

RISK RELATED TO FOREIGN INVESTMENT

The Bank has an insignificant exposure of foreign equity investments recorded in the banking book as a result of amalgamation.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

CIMB Thai firmly believes that its ongoing commitment and efforts in ensuring a strong corporate governance structure and culture across the organisation will help it deliver value to all its stakeholders. Hence, the Bank has strived to have good corporate governance practices put in place and the highest standards of business integrity applied to all its activities.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES

The Bank has developed processes for identifying, assessing and managing the significant risks and uncertainties facing the Bank. Internal control processes are established to ensure efficiency and effectiveness of business operations and controls in all areas including finance and operations, as well as compliance with relevant laws and regulations. A strong focus is placed on educating and increasing awareness among directors, executive officers and employees on the Bank's codes of conduct, the relevant laws and regulatory requirements, as well as disciplinary procedures.

The Bank's corporate governance policy, which contains guidelines for directors, executive officers, and employees, was formulated. With adherence to this policy in its operations, the Bank aims to build trust and confidence among investors and stakeholders, hence improving its competitiveness, enhancing value and promoting stability. The policy was updated to comply with the good governance principles and relevant regulatory requirements. Details of the Bank's corporate governance policy are available on its website: www.cimbthai.com.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

1. Rights of Shareholders

The Bank has recognised the rights of all shareholders and encouraged them to exercise their basic rights on an equitable basis, as well as proactively communicated with them regularly. Such rights include the rights to sell, purchase or transfer shares, access Bank information, ensure fair distribution of profit, attend meetings to cast votes, express opinions and comments, and decide on important matters including appointment of directors and auditor, allocation of profit, dividend payment, increase or decrease of capital, and approval of any special items, etc.

The Bank is required to hold its annual general meeting of shareholders (AGM) within four months from the fiscal year end. Meetings of shareholders other than general meetings are called extraordinary meetings, which can be convened by the Board at any time it deems fit. The 2016 AGM was held on 19 April 2016.

Before the AGM, from 1 November 2015 to 31 January 2016, shareholders were invited to propose matters for inclusion in the meeting agenda and propose names of qualified candidates for election as directors of the Bank in accordance with the Bank's rules and criteria. For the 2016 AGM, no agenda items and no director nominations were proposed by the shareholders.

To convene the 2016 AGM, the Bank sent an invitation notice in which each agenda item was clearly identified whether it was for acknowledgement or consideration, together with background, rationale, and recommendations of the Board, as well as supporting documents which comprised of meeting attendance and voting, proxy grants by shareholders, and the 2015 annual report in hard copy. The Bank has assigned Thailand Securities Depository, the Bank's share registrar, to send notice to shareholders for consideration 14 days before the meeting. This allows shareholders to have time to study the information beforehand. The Bank also published notice and other supporting documents on its website 14 days before the meeting. The notice was also made available to public via the disclosure channel of the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET). Furthermore, in accordance with regulatory requirements, the notice was published in newspapers for three consecutive days at least three days before the meeting. On the day of the AGM, various measures were taken to facilitate participation by shareholders or proxy holders, including assigning staff to verify their related credentials to preserve their rights and ensure equitable treatment is offered to all shareholders. Registration of attendees was conducted through a bar code system with separate voting slips provided for each agenda item.

The shareholders and proxy holders had the opportunity to register at least two hours before the meeting began. Also, during the meeting, the shareholders could register their attendance to exercise their voting rights for any agenda item for which resolutions had not yet been passed. The Bank prepared proxy forms and details on proxy granting for shareholders who have appointed proxies to attend the meeting on their behalf. The proxy form and details on proxy granting were submitted together with the invitation notice to all shareholders. The Bank also provided an additional option to shareholders by providing the names and backgrounds of independent directors whom shareholders could consider for their proxy appointment. At the 2016 AGM, nine shareholders appointed the member of the Audit Committee who is independent director to attend the AGM and vote on the shareholder's behalf.

At the 2016 AGM, 100% of the Board members and 500 shareholders and proxies attended the meeting, with total shares held of 24,018,606,645 shares representing 96.9480% of the total issued shares. Before the meeting began, the Chairman had assigned the Company Secretary to give an explanation regarding voting rights and procedures to the attendees. The Chairman had assigned the Vice Chairman to run the meeting in order to assure that the shareholders would have equal opportunity to ask questions, raise any issues or make recommendations without language restriction. In addition, the Bank gave multimedia presentation of the proposed information for the meeting and provided simultaneous English translation for foreign shareholders. At the meeting, members of the Board and relevant executive officers answered or clarified related issues clearly and comprehensively. Issues raised and recommendations given were recorded in the meeting minutes. Voting was conducted in an open and transparent manner whereby vote casting for each agenda item followed the order specified in the notice and no modifications were made to the original agenda. Voting results on each agenda item were tallied through the bar code system and ballots of shareholders who disagreed and abstained from voting were kept. After the meeting, the minutes of the meeting were prepared in an accurate and comprehensive manner, including a summary of issues raised and clarifications or views provided as well as detailed votes for each agenda item which showed the number of votes cast for and against the motion, etc. The minutes of the 2016 AGM were submitted to the relevant supervisory authorities within 14 days from the meeting date as prescribed by law, and posted on the Bank's website, www.cimbthai.com, for shareholders' reference.

2. Equitable Treatment of Shareholders

The Bank recognises the importance of fair treatment of all shareholders including its duty on protection of shareholders' interests. Measures are in place to prevent the use of internal information for personal gains by the Board members, executives and employees. The Board has set a policy and procedure to prohibit unauthorised disclosure of material and non-public information which may affect the Bank's securities. Such policy and procedure require members of the Board, executives and employees, including spouses and underage children thereof, to refrain from using information that has become privately known to them for purchase, sale, transfer or receipt of transfer of securities of the Bank during a one-month period before such information goes to public. Moreover, members of the Board and executives from levels of senior executive vice president or the equivalents upward, and those holding executive positions or department heads or the equivalents upward in the accounting or finance function line are duty-bound to report every sale or purchase of securities of the Bank and any change of the holding thereof, to the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and keep copies of such reports at the Office of the President as evidence. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the shareholders of CIMB Thai Bank Public Company Limited

My opinion

In my opinion, the consolidated financial statements of CIMB Thai Bank Public Company Limited (the Bank) and its subsidiaries (the Group) and the separate financial statements of the Bank present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated and separate financial position of the Group and of the Bank as at 31 December 2016, and its consolidated and separate financial performance and its consolidated and separate cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Thai Financial Reporting Standards (TFRSs).

What I have audited

I have audited the consolidated and separate financial statements of the Group and the Bank, which comprise the consolidated and separate statements of financial position as at 31 December 2016, and the related consolidated and separate statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated and separate financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with Thai Standards on Auditing (TSAs). My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements section of my report. I am independent of the Group and the Bank in accordance with the Federation of Accounting Professions under the Royal Patronage of his Majesty the King's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to my audit of the financial statements, and I have fulfilled my other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements as a whole, and in forming my opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How my audit addressed the key audit matter
Allowance for doubtful accounts on loans to customers
Refer to Note 2.9 for the accounting policy of the Group relating to allowance for doubtful accounts. For disclosures relating to loans to customers, refer to Note 9.
Loans to customers are a significant portion constituting 66% of total assets. As at 31 December 2016 the total loans portfolio of the Group comprises of loans of commercial banking business which constitutes 87.77%, and hire-purchase receivables generated from the operations of the Group's subsidiaries 12.23%. Management applied a quantitative approach and qualitative factors to an estimation of the allowance for doubtful accounts on certain loans and portfolio of loans to customers. Management set up allowances on the Group's individual customers, principally based on the Bank of Thailand's guidelines as well as management's assessment of the repayment capacity of individual customers. Management assessed the financial status of individual customers and may hold additional allowance wherever required. This included considering, in addition to objective criteria, other qualitative factors that include but aren't limited to payment history, financial position and the performance of the customer, key financial ratios, industry trends etc. For non-performing loans, management considered expected future cash flows from debt collection which required appropriate assumptions in accordance about economic conditions and from disposing of collateral which has been appraised by the professional valuers. Considering the economic conditions and credit risk in overall loans to customers, management used judgements and hold overlays as general allowance for further losses, if any. Based on the significance, level of subjectivity and estimation uncertainty, allowance for doubtful accounts on loans to customers is a key area of focus.	I tested the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key controls over input data and the calculation of allowances as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I tested management's controls over data accuracy, assessed the application of appropriate methodologies and appropriateness of systems, processes and internal controls in relation to generating the reliable results. • I tested the key controls (both automated and manual). I involved my information technology specialists to test access controls to the system and controls over the computation of allowance for doubtful accounts, including the completeness and accuracy of customers' accounts used in the computation. I also tested controls over data input into the system, collateral valuation, transfer of data and reconciliations between the loans source systems to the general ledger. • I tested management's controls over review and approval of setting up an allowance for doubtful accounts. • I read minutes of key committee meetings - especially the credit committee, risk committee, management committees and Board of Director meetings of companies in the Group. I didn't find any exception from my testing, with the result that I relied on controls of the Group in my audit. In addition, I also used the following audit procedures. I independently performed a credit analysis where I selected loans based on risk exposures. I tested the classification of those loans and examined the allowance in accordance with the regulatory requirements. On certain loans, management set up an additional allowance, I understood the management's process and assessed the appropriateness of borrower's capacity to pay using internal and external evidence, and assessed the appropriateness of those allowances. I critically assessed for any extra allowance which hadn't been identified by management. I found no material exceptions. For non-performing loans, I tested cash flow projections from repayment and appraisal value of collateral, in order to assess the appropriateness of allowance for doubtful accounts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I challenged the basic cash flow projections prepared by management and assessed the appropriateness of projections by examining them against the relevant supporting evidence and had a detailed discussion with management on the future cash flows expected from customer. I also used professional judgement and external evidence, if any, to assess those projections.

Key audit matter	How my audit addressed the key audit matter
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For collateral valuations performed by the professional valuers, I checked their qualifications. Then, I sampled those valuations to check that the management used the latest valuations in the computation of allowance for doubtful accounts. I assessed the appropriateness of the valuation methodologies by considering that the valuers used the methodology allowed by the regulators. I also checked the accuracy of the collateral value deducted from loan outstanding. I tested the management's review and approval process for general provision. I assessed the appropriateness of general provision by using my industry experience and knowledge, in the light of current economic conditions. I also performed an assessment for the appropriateness of general provisions by comparing the proportion of the allowance to the loan of the Bank with other major banks in Thailand. Based on the work I performed I didn't find any difference which is material to overall financial statements.
Valuation of derivative financial instruments
Refer to Note 2.18 for the accounting policy of the Group relating to derivative financial instruments. For disclosures relating to derivatives refer to the Note 7.
As at 31 December 2016, the Group's derivatives financial instruments mainly comprise of derivatives, assets and liabilities amounting to Baht 21,235 million amounting to Baht 21,381 million, respectively. Valuation of these derivatives was performed by the management by making judgments in determining the appropriate valuation methodology and use of relevant data which resulted in valuation risk. The valuation of derivatives was my key area of focus. For derivatives financial instruments valuation methodologies were complicated and I applied valuation techniques. Valuation of derivatives financial instruments depends highly on the valuation methodology and market data, inappropriate usage of any of them could have a significant impact on the financial statements.	I assessed the operating effectiveness of the following key controls over the valuation of derivatives financial instruments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Controls over the computerised system used for the valuation of derivatives financial instruments. I defined the scope of work with the information technology specialist team during the audit planning phase and used the results of tests of information technology general controls and application controls performed. Manual controls over the completeness, appropriateness and accuracy of data input into the system. I tested the controls over reconciliations for the data uploaded into the systems, and reconciliations between the derivatives source systems and financial reporting systems. I didn't find any exception from my tests and I could rely on these controls for the purpose of my audit. I performed further procedures in addition to control testing. On a sample basis, I independently measured valuations based on market data as a benchmark, then assessed the reason for variance against the Group's valuation result. There was no material variance which wasn't explainable.

Other information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated and separate financial statements and my auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to me after the date of this auditor's report.

My opinion on the consolidated and separate financial statements does not cover the other information and I will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with my audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements, my responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated and separate financial statements or my knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When I read the annual report, if I conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, I am required to communicate the matter to the audit committee.

Responsibilities of the directors for the consolidated and separate financial statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated and separate financial statements in accordance with TFRSs, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated and separate financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated and separate financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group and the Bank's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group and the Bank or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The audit committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group and the Bank's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated and separate financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with TSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated and separate financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with TSAs, I exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated and separate financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group and the Bank's internal control.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group and the Bank's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated and separate financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and the Bank to cease to continue as a going concern.

Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated and separate financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated and separate financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. I am responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. I remain solely responsible for my audit opinion.

I communicate with the audit committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

I also provide the audit committee with a statement that I have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the audit committee, I determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. I describe these matters in my auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, I determine that a matter should not be communicated in my report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

2 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated and separate financial statements are set out below:

2.1 Basis of preparation of consolidated and separate financial statements

The consolidated and separate financial statements (“the financial statements”) have been prepared in accordance with Thai Generally Accepted Accounting Principles under the Accounting Act B.E. 2543, being those Thai Financial Reporting Standards issued under the Accounting Profession Act B.E. 2547, and the financial reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities and Exchange Act. The primary financial statements (i.e., statements of financial position, statements of comprehensive income, changes in shareholder equity and cash flow) have been prepared in the format as required by the Notification of the Bank of Thailand (BoT) no. SorNorSor 21/2558, “The Preparation and Format of the Financial Statements of Commercial Bank and Holding Parent Company of Financial Group” dated 4 December 2015.

The consolidated and separate financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the GAAP requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated and separate financial statements, are disclosed in Note 4 to the financial statements.

The Bank has prepared the financial statements for the benefit of the public, which presents its investment in subsidiaries under the cost method.

An English version of the consolidated and separate financial statements have been prepared from the statutory financial statements that are in Thai-language version. In the event of a conflict or a difference in interpretation between the two languages, the Thai language financial statements shall prevail.

2.2.2 Revised financial reporting standards are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017. The Group has not yet early adopted these revised standards.

a) Financial reporting standards, which have significant changes and are relevant to the Group:

TAS 1	(revised 2016)	Presentation of financial statements
TAS 19	(revised 2016)	Employee benefits
TAS 27	(revised 2016)	Separate financial statements
TAS 28	(revised 2016)	Investments in associates and joint ventures
TAS 34	(revised 2016)	Interim financial reporting
TFRS 5	(revised 2016)	Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations
TFRS 10	(revised 2016)	Consolidated financial statements
TFRS 12	(revised 2016)	Disclosure of interests in other entities

TAS 1 (revised 2016), the amendments provide clarifications on a number of issues, including:

- Materiality - an entity should not aggregate or disaggregate information in a manner that obscures useful information. Where items are material, sufficient information must be provided to explain the impact on the financial position or performance.
- Disaggregation and subtotals - line items specified in TAS 1 may need to be disaggregated where this is relevant to an understanding of the entity's financial position or performance. There is also new guidance on the use of subtotals.
- Notes - confirmation that the notes do not need to be presented in a particular order.

- OCI arising from investments accounted for under the equity method - the share of OCI arising from equity-accounted investments is grouped based on whether the items will or will not subsequently be reclassified to profit or loss. Each group should then be presented as a single line item in the statement of other comprehensive income.

TAS 19 (revised 2016), the amendments clarify that when determining the discount rate for post-employment benefit obligations, it is the currency that the liabilities are denominated in that is important and not the country where they arise.

TAS 27 (revised 2016), the amendments allow an entity a policy choice to account for investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in its separate financial statements using the equity method as described in TAS 28. While current TAS 27 allows entities to measure their investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates either at cost or at fair value (when announced). The election can be made independently for each category of investment (subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates). Entities wishing to change to the equity method must do so retrospectively.

TAS 28 (revised 2016), the significant changes are 1) the amendments allow an entity which is not an investment entity, but has an interest in an associate or joint venture which is an investment entity, a policy choice when applying the equity method of accounting. The entity may choose to retain the fair value measurement applied by the investment entity associate or joint venture, or to unwind the fair value measurement and instead perform a consolidation at the level of the investment entity associate or joint venture and 2) the amendments allow an entity a policy choice to account for investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in its separate financial statements using the equity method.

TAS 34 (revised 2016), the amendments clarify that what is meant by the reference in the standard to 'information disclosed elsewhere in the interim financial report'; entities taking advantage of the relief must provide a cross-reference from the interim financial statements to the location of that information and make the information available to users on the same terms and at the same time as the interim financial statements.

TFRS 5 (revised 2016), the amendments clarify that when an asset (or disposal group) is reclassified from 'held for sale' to 'held for distribution' or vice versa, this does not constitute a change to a plan of sale or distribution and does not have to be accounted for as such.

TFRS 10 (revised 2016), the amendments clarify that: 1) the exception from preparing consolidated financial statements is also available to intermediate parent entities which are subsidiaries of investment entities and 2) an investment entity should consolidate a subsidiary which is not an investment entity and whose main purpose and activity is to provide services in support of the investment entity's investment activities.

TFRS 12 (revised 2016), the amendments clarify the disclosure requirements of an entity which is an investment entity and exception from preparing consolidated financial statement and instead measured its subsidiaries at fair value is required to disclose information of its subsidiaries according to the requirement in TFRS 12.

The management has assessed and considered that the above revised standards will not have a material impact on the Group.

2.3 Revenue recognition

(a) Interest and discount on loans

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis. The Group discontinues recognition of overdue accrued interest income more than three months since the due date unless there is uncertainty of collectability, and a collection basis is applied. The Group also reverses interest income on such loans in order to comply with the Bank of Thailand's notification. The Group continues its income recognition on the accrual basis when the entire amount of the principal and overdue interest has been paid.

The Group recognises interest income on restructured loans on the same accrual basis as used for loans discussed above, with the exception of loans that are subject to monitoring for compliance with restructuring conditions, on which the Bank recognises interest income on a cash basis until the borrower has been able to comply with the restructuring conditions for a period of not less than three consecutive months or three consecutive installments, whichever is longer.

(b) Interest and dividends on investments

Interest income from investments is recognised on a time-proportion basis using the effective interest method. Dividend income from investments is recognised when the right-to-receive payment is established.

Interest income from investments in receivables is recognised using the effective interest method for receivables from which loan repayment was received during the year. The effective interest rate was determined on assumptions as to the amount and the timing of future collections on such loans. Such assumptions concern events that have not yet taken place and accordingly may vary if unforeseen circumstances arise.

(c) Gains (losses) on sale of investments

Gains (losses) on sale of investments are recognised as income/expenses on the settlement date.

(d) Gains (losses) on sale of properties for sale

Gains (losses) on sale of properties for sale are recognised as income or expenses in statements of comprehensive income when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of properties for sale have been transferred to the buyer.

(e) Income from hire-purchase contracts

The subsidiaries calculate hire-purchase income using the effective interest rate method over the period of contracts.

The subsidiaries recognise hire-purchase income on the same basis used for interest income on loans.

(f) Other income

Other income is recognised as income on an accrual basis.

2.4 Expense recognition

(a) Interest expenses

Interests on borrowings and deposits are recognised as expenses on an accrual basis.

(b) Commission fee under hire-purchase agreements

The commission fee under hire-purchase agreements is recognised over the installment period, using the effective rate method.

(c) Other expense

Other expense is recognised as expense on an accrual basis.

2.5 Investments

The Group classifies investments, other than investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, into 4 categories: 1. Trading investments; 2. Held-to-maturity investments; 3. Available-for-sale investments; and 4. General investments. The classification is dependent on the purpose for which the investments were acquired. Management determines the appropriate classification of its investments at the time of the purchase and re-evaluates such designation on a regular basis.

- (1) Trading investments are investments that are acquired principally for the purpose of generating a profit from short-term fluctuations in price not more than 3 months. Trading investments are traded in active markets and included in short-term investment.
- (2) Held-to-maturity investments are investments with fixed maturity that the management has the intent and ability to hold to maturity, and are classified as held-to-maturity and included in long-term investment, except for maturities within 12 months from the statement of financial position date which are classified as short-term investment.
- (3) Available-for-sale investments are investments intended to be held for an indefinite period of time, which may be sold in response to liquidity needs or changes in interest rates, and are included in long-term investment unless management has expressed the intention of holding the investment for less than 12 months from the statements of financial position date, in which case they are included in short-term investment.
- (4) General investments are investments in non-marketable equity securities.

Purchases and sales of investments are recognised on the settlement date. Cost of investment includes transaction costs. Trading and available-for-sale investments are subsequently carried at fair value.

Available-for-sale investments are presented in the statement of financial position at fair value less allowance for impairment, if any. In the statements of comprehensive income, the unrealised gains and losses of trading investments are recognised in the gains (losses) on investment. Unrealised gain and losses arising from changes in the fair value of investments classified as available-for-sale are recognised in equity. When available-for-sale investments are sold or impaired, the accumulated fair value adjustments are included in the statements of comprehensive income as gains (losses) on investment. Fair values are calculated on the following basis:

- For marketable debt securities, fair values are calculated by referencing the last bid prices on the last business day of the year. The rates are announced by the Thai Bond Market Association (Thai BMA). Fair values of other debt securities are calculated by referencing the risk-free yield curve, adjusted by the appropriate risk premium.
- For marketable equity securities, fair values are calculated by referencing the last bid prices quoted on the Stock Exchange of Thailand on the last business day of the year.

Held-to-maturity investments are carried at amortised cost using the effective yield method less impairment loss.

General investments are carried at cost less impairment.

The Group tests for impairment when there is a factor indicating that an investment might be impaired. If the carrying value of the investment is higher than its recoverable amount, impairment loss is charged to the statement of comprehensive income.

On disposal of an investment, the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount is charged to the statements of comprehensive income. When disposing of part of the Group's holding of a particular investment in debt or equity securities, the carrying amount of the disposed part is determined by the weighted average carrying amount of the total holding of the investment.

2.6 Investments in receivables

Investments in receivables purchased from financial institutions are valued at acquisition cost net of any allowance for impairment, if any. Loss on impairment of investments is included in statements of comprehensive income.

Investments in receivables which enter into troubled debt restructuring are transferred to loans and presented at fair value net of any allowance for doubtful debt. The fair value is based on the outstanding balance of investments in receivables purchased as at transferred date or as at the date of restructuring.

The Group determines allowance for impairment of investments in receivables based on the present value of expected future cash flows from collateral disposal or debt collection in accordance with the Bank of Thailand's provisioning guidelines.

2.7 Promissory notes received in connection with transfer of non-performing loans to TAMC

Promissory notes received in connection with the transfer of non-performing loans to Thai Asset Management Corporation ("TAMC"), which are availed by the Financial Institutions Development Fund ("FIDF"), are regarded as investments in debt securities expected to be held to maturity and therefore stated at cost. The Bank recognises interest income on the promissory notes on an accrual basis using the weighted average interest rate announced by 5 commercial banks for the previous quarter. The Bank will recognise income or expenses with respect to gain or loss sharing from the management of non-performing loans at the end of the agreement, and when the Bank receives allocation from TAMC, or when the gain or loss can be accurately estimated.

2.8 Investments in subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair value of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's net assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is re-measured to fair value at the acquisition date; any gains or losses arising from such re-measured are recognised in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the Group is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration that is deemed to be an asset or liability is recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not re-measured, and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest recognise and previously held interest measured is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss.

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

2.9 Loans/hire-purchase receivables and allowance for doubtful accounts

(a) For loans of commercial banking business

Loans are generally stated at the principal amounts outstanding. The allowance for doubtful accounts is provided for risks of losses incurred on loans. The allowance is increased by provisions charged to expense or recoveries and decreased by write-offs. The allowance is based on the management's review and assessment of the status of individual debtors as well as the Bank of Thailand's guidelines. In addition, the Bank takes into consideration the relationship of risks involved, value of collateral and the status of individual debtors including the relationship of allowance for doubtful debts against the loan balance through economic situations which may have an impact on customers' ability to pay.

(b) For hire-purchase receivables

Hire-purchase receivables are stated at net realisable value from the contractual amounts net of unearned hire-purchase income.

Allowance for doubtful accounts is set in accordance with the Bank of Thailand's guidelines.

2.10 Troubled debt restructuring and associated losses

The Group records troubled debt restructuring transactions and related losses according to the notifications of the Bank of Thailand.

The Bank records assets received in settlement of debts at the lower of the fair values of the assets, less any estimated selling expenses, or the amount of investments in receivables (including accrued interest income).

In the case the debt restructuring involves modification of terms of receivables, the fair value of investments in receivables after restructuring is based on the net present value of the expected future cash flows, discounted by the Minimum Loan Rate ("MLR") or Customer Loan Rate ("CLR") prevailing at the restructuring date.

Losses arising from restructuring, loss allowance for doubtful accounts, are recorded as revaluation allowance for debt restructuring and recognised as expense in the statements of comprehensive income when incurred.

Legal fees and other direct costs incurred to effect the debt restructuring are expensed when incurred.

The Group adjusts the revaluation allowance for debt restructuring at the end of every year by re-calculating the net present value of expected cash flows, discounted by the MLR or CLR being quoted to the debtor at the end of the year.

Losses arising from debt restructuring through waiver of part of the principal or recorded accrued interest receivable after deduction the provided allowance (if any) will be charged against the statements of comprehensive income when the debt restructuring agreement is executed.

2.11 Properties for sale

Properties for sale consisting of immovable and movable assets are stated at the lower of cost or net realisable value less estimated selling expenses of the acquisition assets. Where the carrying value of for-sale assets incurred impairment, the Group will recognise the provision for impairment of properties for-sale in total.

The Group will recognise gain (loss) on sales of properties for-sale as income or expenses in the whole amount in accordance with the notifications of the Bank of Thailand.

2.12 Premises, equipment and depreciation

Land and buildings comprise mainly offices and are shown at fair value based on every 5 years valuations by external independent valuers, less subsequent depreciation for buildings. All other equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Increases in the carrying amount arising on revaluation of land and building are credited to statement of comprehensive income and shown as gain on asset revaluation in shareholders' equity. Decreases that offset previous increases of the same asset are charged in other comprehensive income and debited against gain on asset revaluation directly in equity; all other decreases are charged to profit or loss. Each year, the difference between depreciation based on the revalued carrying amount of the asset charged to profit or loss and depreciation based on the asset's original cost is transferred from 'gain on asset revaluation' to retained earnings.

Land is not depreciated. Depreciation on other assets is calculated using the straight line method to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Buildings	40 years
Equipment	5 years and 10 years

At the end of each reporting period, the assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate.

The asset's carrying amount is written-down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (note 2.14).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount and are recognised in the statements of comprehensive income.

When revalued assets are sold, the amounts included in gain on asset revaluation are transferred to retained earnings.

2.13 Intangible assets

(a) Computer software

Acquired computer software licences are capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and bring to use the specific software. These costs are amortised over their estimated useful lives of 5 years and 10 years.

Costs associated with maintaining computer software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Group are recognised as intangible assets when the following criteria are met:

- It is technically feasible to complete the software product so that it will be available for use;
- Management intends to complete the software product and use or sell it;
- There is an ability to use or sell the software product;
- It can be demonstrated how the software product will generate probable future economic benefits;
- Adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the software product are available; and
- The expenditure attributable to the software product during its development can be reliably measured.

Directly attributable costs that are capitalised as part of the software product include the software development employee costs and an appropriate portion of relevant overheads.

Other development expenditures that do not meet these criteria are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs previously recognised as an expense are not recognised as an asset in a subsequent period.

(b) Other intangible assets

Expenditures on acquired licences are capitalised and amortised using the straight-line basis over their useful lives, generally over 5 years. Intangible assets are not revalued.

2.14 Impairment of assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life, for example goodwill, are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment. Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest level for which there are separately identifiable cash flows. Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.15 Leasehold rights

The Bank amortises the cost of leasehold rights on buildings, which are presented as other assets, for the period of 2 - 30 years as an operating expense on a straight-line method over the life of the agreement.

2.16 Leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Leases of property, plant or equipment where the lessee substantially has all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Finance leases are capitalised at the inception of the lease at the lower of the fair value of the leased property and the present value of the minimum lease payments.

Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance charges so as to achieve a constant rate on the finance balance outstanding. The corresponding rental obligations and net of finance charges are included in other long-term payables. The interest element of the finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so property, plant or equipment acquired under finance leases is depreciated over the shorter period of the useful life of the asset and the lease term.

2.17 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ('the functional currency'). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Thai Baht, which is the Group's functional and presentation currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at period-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the profit or loss.

When a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income. Conversely, when a gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit and loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is recognised in profit and loss.

2.18 Financial derivatives

The Group regards its obligations under financial derivatives contracts as off-statements of financial position items. The accounting treatments for financial derivatives transactions depend on the purpose of the transactions as follows:

(a) Trading transactions

The Group records its obligations under financial derivatives contracts originated for trading purposes at fair value. Gains/losses arising from changes in value are included in the statements of comprehensive income.

(b) Hedging transactions

The Group measures derivatives classified as hedging transactions according to the natures of items being hedged. The Bank designates certain derivatives as either:

(1) Fair value hedge

Changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as fair value hedges are recorded in the statement of comprehensive income, together with any changes in the fair value of the hedged assets or liabilities that are attributable to the hedged risk.

(2) Cash flow hedge

The effective portion of changes in fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges are recognised in equity. The gain and loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in the statement of comprehensive income. Amount accumulated in equity are recycled to the statement of comprehensive income in the periods in which the hedged item will affect the statements of comprehensive income.

When a hedged forecast transaction occurs and results in the recognition of a financial asset or financial liability, the gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income does not adjust the initial carrying amount of the asset or liability but remains in equity and is reclassified from equity to profit or loss consistently with the recognition of gains and losses on the asset or liability as a reclassification adjustment.

For hedges of forecast transactions that result in the recognition of a non-financial asset or non-financial liability, the gains and losses previously deferred in equity are reclassified from equity and included in the initial measurement of the cost of the asset.

(3) Net investment in foreign operations hedge

Hedges of net investment in foreign operations are accounted for similarly to cash flow hedges.

At the inception of the hedge, the Group documents the relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items, as well as their risk management objective. The Group also assesses the hedge effectiveness in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of hedged items on an ongoing basis both at the hedge inception and every financial reporting date.

Disclosures about derivative financial instruments to which the Group is a party are provided in Note 45 to the financial statements.

2.19 Embedded derivatives

The Group records embedded derivatives in compliance with the Bank of Thailand's Notification as follows:

(a) If the economic characteristics and risks of an embedded derivative are not closely related to the economic characteristic and risk of host contract, the Group will separately account the embedded derivative from the host contract and measure the embedded derivative at fair value including a gain/loss in the statements of comprehensive income. The host contract will be accounted for under the related accounting standards. In case of the Group is unable to measure the embedded derivative separately, the Group will designate the entire hybrid contract as at fair value (based on arranger's price) included in the statements of comprehensive income.

(b) If the economic characteristics and risks of an embedded derivative are closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host contract, the Group will not separately account the embedded derivative from the host contract and classify the host contract under the related accounting standards.

2.20 Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

The Bank's management approach with regards to the accounting and assessment of fair value of borrowing transactions with embedded derivative (Structured Note) is consistent with those of International Accounting Standard No. 39 (IAS 39). The Bank has an option to classify the structured note as financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss when

1. It eliminates or significantly reduces an inconsistency of measurement or recognition that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on a different basis; or
2. It is a management tool for risk management and investment, in accordance with
 - Documented risk management or investment strategy; and
 - Group of financial assets or financial liabilities managed and their performance evaluated on a fair value basis.
3. It relates to financial instruments containing one or more embedded derivatives that significantly modify the cash flows resulting from those financial instruments and meets the above criteria for separation of the embedded derivative from the host contract.

Changes in the fair value of financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in profit or loss as gain or loss on financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss with the corresponding entry to liabilities in the statements of financial position. The fair value designation, once made, is irrevocable.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value and derecognised when extinguished.

Measurement is initially at fair value, Day 1 Profit from fair value will be amortised as income using straight-line method until maturity or at early termination. Changes in the fair value of financial liabilities, designated at fair value through profit or loss, are recognised in the statements of comprehensive income as gain or loss on financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit loss.

2.21 Employee benefits and pension fund

Defined contribution plan

The Group operates a provident fund that is a defined contribution plan, the assets of which are held in a separate trust fund managed by external fund manager. The provident fund is funded by payments from employees and by the Group. Contributions to the provident fund are charged to the statements of comprehensive income in the year to which they relate.

Defined benefit plan

The Group has a policy to pay post-employment benefits to employees under the labour law applicable in Thailand.

The Group set provisions for employee benefits which comprises post-employment benefits under the labour law applicable in Thailand and pension fund.

The liability in respect of employee's benefits is measured, using the projected unit credit method which is calculated by an independent actuary in accordance with the actuarial technique. The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting estimated future cash flows using yield on the government bonds which have terms to maturity approximating the terms of related liability. The estimated future cash flows shall reflect employee salaries, turnover rate, mortality, length of service and others. Actuarial gains and losses arise from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions. Actuarial gains and losses are charged or credited to equity in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise.

2.22 Provisions

The Group recognises provisions when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated.

Where the Group expects a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is highly likely.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.23 Current and deferred income taxes

The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period in the countries where the Bank's subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax is recognised, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising from differences between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements.

However, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised. Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

2.24 Share based payment

In March 2011, the Group established an Equity Ownership Plan (EOP). At the grant date, the Group records prepayment for the whole amount with fair value refers to market price on the same day of the ordinary shares of CIMB Group Holdings Berhad, which is the parent company of CIMB Group, and registers in the stock market in Malaysia multiplies with the number of shares granted to the employees. The Bank paid the amount to the related company in Malaysia which will purchase, own the shares until the transfer date on behalf of the Bank and other companies in the group.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group sets up payment reserve as the proportion of time of the vesting period. The reserve presents as other liabilities.

The Bank reverses prepayment againsts share base payment reserve with the preset amount when the related company in Malaysia transfers those ordinary shares to the employees at the end of vesting period.

2.25 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the Bank's shareholders is recognised on an accrual basis in accordance with the substance of the relevant agreements. Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

2.26 Segment reporting

Operating segments are presented in respect of the Group's business segments and reported to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker is the person or group that allocates resources to and assesses the performance of the operating segments of an entity. The Group has determined the Management Committee as its chief operating decision-maker.

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk, fair value interest rate risk, cash flow interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on its financial performance. The Group uses derivative financial instruments to hedge certain exposures.

Risk management is carried out under policies approved by the Board of Directors. The Group's Treasury identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with its operating units. The Board provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as written policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, use of derivative and non-derivative financial instruments, and investment excess liquidity.

3.1.1 Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the Group may suffer loss as a result of changes in the value of positions taken, both on and off statements of financial position, due to movements in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices and commodity prices.

The Group has a Market Risk Management Unit, which is responsible for assessment of market risk, and uses tools and systems that are widely accepted as efficient to help measure, monitor and manage market risk. This supports the Bank in ensuring that market risk is monitored and managed effectively, preventing the occurrence of unacceptable levels of market risk, and enabling the Group to take action to adjust market risk to appropriate levels in a timely manner.

3.1.1.1 Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk is the risk that changes in foreign exchange rates may result in changes in the value of financial instruments, and fluctuations in revenues and the value of financial assets and liabilities.

The Group's Treasury and Trading Division is responsible for managing foreign currency positions within risk limits set by the Risk Management Committee.

3.1.1.2 Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that changes in market interest rates which may lead to changes in the value of financial instruments, and fluctuations in revenue and the values of financial assets and liabilities.

Interest rate risk arises from interest rate structure, the characteristics and structure of the Bank's assets, liabilities and capital. The Bank has set risk limits for interest rate risk under the banking accounts, with consent from the Assets and Liabilities Committee (ALCO), in order to manage risk at an appropriate level, while interest rate risk limits for the trading accounts are approved by the Risk Management Committee.

3.1.1.3 Equity position risk

Equity position risk is the risk that changes in the market prices of equity securities may result in changes in the value of investments, and fluctuations in revenues and the value of financial assets.

3.1.2 Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that the Group will incur a loss because its customers, clients or counter parties failed to discharge their contractual obligations.

The Group's credit risk management processes are implemented under a credit risk management policy, and have been structured in order to maintain checks and balances and clear segregation of responsibilities between the marketing, credit approval, inspection and risk management functions. The Group manages credit risk at the customer standalone risk level and the portfolio level, developing different and appropriate credit risk rating tools to measure the risk at each level. For corporate customers and small-medium enterprise customers, risk grading tools and an SME rating, respectively, have been developed to grade customer credit risk levels. For individual retail customers, with multi-purpose credit, whether uncollateralised (personal cash) or collateralised (mortgage power), including home loans, the Group has developed a credit scoring system for use in risk evaluation.

In respect of the credit review and approval process, the Group has appointed a Credit Committee to consider the granting of credit facilities at different levels, based on the credit limit, focusing on borrowers' ability to make repayment, the type of credit, the financial status of the borrower, the economic situation and the status of the borrowers' industry. Furthermore, the Group has established an independent Credit Review Unit to ensure that the credit approval process is transparent and effective.

The maximum credit risk exposure is the carrying value of the financial assets after deducting allowance for losses as stated in the statements of financial position, and the risk of off-statements of financial position commitments, e.g., loan guarantees and other guarantees, and derivative contracts.

3.1.3 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will be unable to pay its debts and obligations when due because of an inability to convert assets into cash, or because of its failure to procure enough funds.

The Treasury group of the Bank is responsible for liquidity management, including procurement of both short and long-term sources of funds, and debt security investment management. The overall liquidity risk management is under the responsibility of the Asset and Liability Management Committee, who monitor and control risk, using tools to manage liquidity risk, such as minimum liquidity asset requirements, liquidity gap, liquidity ratio and liquidity risk limits.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES, ASSUMPTIONS AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates, assumptions and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are outlined below.

(a) Allowance for doubtful accounts for loans

The Group considers an allowance for doubtful accounts to reflect impairment of loans relating to estimated losses resulting from the inability of customers to make required payments. The allowance for doubtful accounts is significantly impacted by the Group's assessment of future cash flows, such assessment being based on consideration of historical collection experience, known and identified instances of default and consideration of market trends.

(b) Fair value of financial derivative instruments

In determining the fair value of financial derivative instruments, the management has made judgment by using a variety of acceptable valuation techniques. The input parameter to the models used is taken from observable markets, and includes consideration of maturity, interest rate, correlation and volatility, etc.

(c) Impairment of investments

Investments are reviewed for impairment losses whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. In determining the impairment losses, management believed that estimations are reasonable.

(d) Allowance for impairment of property for sale

The Group assesses allowance for impairment of property for sale when net realisable value falls below the carrying value. The management uses judgment to estimate impairment losses, taking into consideration the latest appraised value of assets, the type and nature of the assets. However, the use of different estimates and assumptions could affect the amounts of the allowance for impairment. Therefore, allowance for impairment may be adjusted in the future.

(e) Building, equipment and intangible assets

Management determines the estimated useful lives and residual values for the Group's building, equipment and intangible assets. Management will revise the depreciation charge where useful lives and residual values are different than previously estimated, or it will write off or write down technically obsolete or assets that have been abandoned or sold.

(f) Provision for post retirement benefits and pension fund

The Group has a commitment on provision of post-retirement benefits and pension funds for employees. The present value of employee benefit liabilities recognised in the statement of financial position is determined on the present value of estimated future cash outflows for staff. The assumptions used in determining the net year cost for employee benefits includes the salary and years of services of respective employees which are payable in the future and discount rate. Any changes in these assumptions will impact the net year cost recorded for employee benefits.

5 CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt obligations.

Moreover, the Bank is required to manage its capital funds in accordance with the Act on Undertaking of Banking Business B.E. 2551. The Bank's capital fund is presented in Note 27 to the financial statements.

The Bank recognises gains (losses) from changes in fair value of derivatives, derivative from hedging and hedged items in the statements of comprehensive income.

As at 31 December 2016, the Bank had losses from the revaluation of restructured debts (PV Loss) of Baht 45 million (31 December 2015: Baht 55 million) for which the it provided an allowance for revaluation as a result of debt restructuring.

In addition, as at 31 December 2015, the Bank may have to realise additional losses of about Baht 11 million from debt restructuring through waiver of part of the principal or interest receivables if the restructured debtors are able to comply with the conditions as stipulated in the debt restructuring agreements. The Bank had already provided a provision for such losses, which is presented as part of the allowance for doubtful debts in the statements of financial position.

The Bank provides allowance for impairment of properties for sale by reference to appraisal value. The Bank appraises or reviews the fair value of properties for sale annually in accordance with the Notification of the Bank of Thailand. However, the actual selling price may differ from the appraisal value. In addition, the Bank is subjected to restrictions on the allowable periods it may hold such properties, as stipulated by the Bank of Thailand. If the Bank is unable to dispose of the properties within allowable periods, the Bank has to set aside additional provision in accordance with the Bank of Thailand guidelines. The Bank's management believes that the carrying value of such properties is suitable to the current situation and the current disposal plan of its properties for sale.

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2).

Valuation processes of the Company

For financial reporting purposes, the Company engages external, independent and qualified valuers to determine the fair value of the Company's land and building. The Company's finance department team reviewed the fair value which performed by and the valuers. This team reported directly to the Board of the Directors.

The external valuations of level 3, Head office's land and buildings have been performed using cost replacement approach and for the branches using market comparison approach which is similar to level 2. However for operating land and buildings there is a limited number of similar sales in the local market and the valuations have been performed using unobservable inputs. There were no change in valuation technique from previous year.

Market Comparison Approach is approach to analyse necessarily value from buying and selling in the market. The procedure is to inspect compared property, which is in buying and selling process, or called market data and consider how it is the same or different from the evaluated property. The sufficiency of data is very important as well as the consideration of every affection factor like location, town and country planning land size, using space and property quality. Then use the valuation techniques including Sales Adjustment-Grid Method and Weighted Quality Score (WQS) to analyse the evaluated property.

Replacement Cost Approach is based on the new replacement cost by considering in terms of the raw construction material, labor cost, operation cost, and profit and less the depreciation that calculated by physical, obsolescence and optimisation of the assets.

The above sensitivity analyses are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligation calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the employee benefit obligations recognised within the statement of financial position.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the previous year.

As at 31 December 2016, the weighted average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 10 years (31 December 2015: 10 years).

Sum claimed in cases where the Group is sole defendant	296	296

45.5 Financial derivatives

The Bank sets up policies and relevant risk limits by which it requires risk reporting and control procedures as a control over financial derivative activities. The Bank realises that financial derivatives involve credit risk and considers credit limits for its customers in general. The same credit approval process used when granting loans to a customer is adopted for financial derivative customers, so that the Bank is able to maintain risk at acceptable levels. However, financial derivatives may cause the Bank to incur gains or losses as they are sensitive to foreign exchange rates or interest rates, which can fluctuate materially as the market situation changes.

46 FAIR VALUE

46.1 Fair value estimation

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value, by valuation method. The different levels have been defined as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

The following table presents the assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value at 31 December 2016 and 2015.

Methods and assumptions used by the Group for fair value estimation of financial instruments as disclosure are as below:

Cash and Interbank and money market items, net

The carrying amounts of cash and interbank and market items, net (assets) presented in the statement of financial position approximate fair values.

Investments, net

The determination of fair value for investments, net, is as disclosed in Note 2.5 to the financial statements except the estimated fair value for held to maturity debt securities and general investment are based on quoted and observable market price. Where there is no ready market in certain securities, the Group are initially recognised at purchase price plus transaction costs and subsequently accounted for at amortised cost using effective interest method, less allowance for decrease in value, if any, and general investment is stated at cost, less allowance for decrease in value, if any.

Loans to customers, net

Loan to customer, net including non-performing loans with floating rate interest, the fair value is estimated by using loans and accrued interest receivables deduct allowance for doubtful debts.

Accounts receivable - bill of exchange

The carrying amounts of account receivable - bill of exchange presented in the statement of financial position approximate fair values.

Deposits

For deposits with maturities of less than one year, the carrying amounts are a reasonable estimate of their fair value. For deposit with maturities of one year or more, fair values are estimated using discounted cash flows based on prevailing market rates for similar deposits from customers.

Interbank and money market items, net (liabilities)

The carrying amounts of interbank and money market items, net (liabilities) presented in the statement of financial position approximate fair values.

Liability payable on demand

The carrying amounts of liability payable on demand presented in the statement of financial position approximate fair values.

Debt issued and borrowings

The fair value of debt issued and borrowings are estimated based on market price or amortised cost.

46.2 Valuation techniques used to derive Level 2 fair values

Level 2 trading and hedging derivatives comprise forward foreign exchange contracts and interest rate swaps. These forward foreign exchange contracts have been fair valued using forward exchange rates that are quoted in an active market. Interest rate swaps are fair valued using forward interest rates extracted from observable yield curves. The effects of discounting are generally insignificant for Level 2 derivatives.

Level 2 debt investments are fair valued using a discounted cash flow approach, which discounts the contractual cash flows using discount rates derived from observable market prices of other quoted debt instruments of the counterparties.

46.3 Fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)

CONSOLIDATED AND SEPARATE
General Investments
	2016 Million Baht	2015 Million Baht
Opening balance	105	144
Gains recognised in profit and loss	1	2
Provision	-	(4)
Sale	(1)	(7)
Decrease in capital of general investments	(32)	(30)
Closing balance	73	105

Investment classified under Level 3 is general investment which is presented at costs less allowance for impairment (if any). Fair value is calculated based on the net assets value of the invested company according to the proportion that the Bank invested. Management believe that the book value is not significantly different from fair value.
