The Company highly values human resource development as it truly believes that, in order for a corporate to grow sustainably, it needs team players that are knowledgeable, skillful, experienced in subject matters supporting the Company's business conducts, and decisive. These desirable characteristics will be collectively merged together to form a solid corporate culture. Human resource development indeed starts with a proper hiring process that is able to identify preferred candidates with knowledge, skills, and attributes that correspond with the Company's culture.

The Executive Committee Meeting No. 2/2012 held on March 28th, 2012, reviewed the Company's human resource development plan and human resource management policy, and approved the said human resource management policy and the rules and guidelines for human resource development. In the policy part, the Company viewed that employees are valuable resources; therefore, it is determined to maintain and improve its employees continually and systematically to enhance their potentials, to lift their working spirits, to encourage employee unity, and to create the sense of pride as a part of the Company. The Company's human resource management policy can be summarized as follows:

- Select and hire candidates that are knowledgeable, skillful, accountable, and ethical to join the Company
- Develop its human resources to have knowledges, abilities, expertise, skills, and management capabilities to ensure proper job security and professional advancement
- The Company supports and encourages its employees to maintain job security and have professional advancement by ways of promotions. The Company will consider and select internal candidates to resume vacant positions
- Improve and provide various employee benefits that are suitable for employees' positions, experiences, and qualifications, and satisfied with the Company's performance, economic and social conditions
- Instill awareness and sense of respect of the rules of the Company and the society in the mind of its employees
- Retain and support good employees to stay and grow with the Company as long as possible

The Company holds that it is a responsibility of heads of each function to deeply understand human resource development system, as well as to join the Company and lead their subordinates in the collaboration to steer the organization in the directions defined by the Company's policies.

9. Corporate Governance

The Company profoundly recognized that Corporate Governance (CG) is a key driver to the business efficiency and the sustainable growth, which ultimately lead to the maximum returns for all stakeholders including employees, investors, shareholders and other interested persons. The Board of Directors (BOD) thus agreed to establish the policy of Good Corporate Governance, covering major substances including the structure, roles and responsibilities of the BOD, as well as the executives' managing principles that must be transparent, clear, and measurable. This is to ensure that all of the Company's business maneuvers are done with fairness and on the ground of the maximum benefits of the Company's shareholders and stakeholders. In addition, the BOD has established the Code of Conduct to all directors, executives and employees which serve as guidelines for performing their duties in accordance with ethical standard and fair treatment to all stakeholders.

The BOD and the Company's management team strongly adhere to determination and uprightness. The Company determines its vision, policies, and guidelines to be abided by all of its directors, executives, and employees to create the culture of continual CG mindset and build sustainable grounds for value creation for all stakeholders. This is an important engine to accomplish the goals set by the BOD, who designed the Company's structure to be transparent and facilitative to justifiable business conducts according to the CG framework under the rules set forth by the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET).

9.1 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE POLICY

The Company's BOD places high importance on stringent conforming to the CG principle. Recognizing the importance of the roles and responsibilities of the BOD and the management team in building a good CG environment that will strengthen the Company's competitiveness, fortify effective and transparent management, and increase the level of trust from shareholders, investors, and other stakeholders, PACE established its CG policy, covering 5 main principles as the followings:

Principle 1 Shareholders' Rights

The Company respects shareholders' rights to make decisions pertaining to the Company's major changes and the rights to receive correct, complete, sufficient, and timely information evenly. Consequently, the Company has performed as the following:

1. Shareholders' Rights Protection

- 1.1 The Company emphasize the protection of shareholders' rights and the promotion of exercising the basic legal rights i.e. the rights to obtain the relevant and adequate information of the Company, to participate and vote in the shareholders' meeting, to elect and remove members of the board, appoint the external auditor, and make decisions on any transactions that affect the Company such as the amendment to the Company's articles of association and memorandum of association, the capital decrease or increase etc.

- 1.2 The Company recognizes the importance of shareholders' rights by facilitating shareholders more than legal requirement i.e. providing the current important information via the Company's website and providing Management Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) on a quarterly basis.
- 1.3 The shareholding structure of the Company comprises of numerous minority shareholders to balance with the majority shareholders, not contributing to any person or group to control vote or control of the Company, while enhancing the good corporate governance to shareholders. Currently, the Company has free float at 39.94%, no cross shareholding, and no pyramid structure.

2. The Shareholders' Meeting

- 2.1 The Company held the Shareholders' Meeting once a year within 4 months after the end of the accounting period. In 2016, the meeting was held on 26th April, 2016, where Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chairman of Nomination and Remuneration Committee, Chairman of Risk Management Committee, directors, Chief Executive Officer, management, external auditor, and legal advisor attended the meeting to respond questions.
- 2.2 The Company has provided Legal Advisor of Weerawong, Chinnavat & Peangpanor Limited and shareholders' volunteers checking the vote counting in the shareholders' meeting, which was disclosed in the minutes of shareholders' meeting.

3. Delivering the Meeting Invitation Letter

- 3.1 The Company assigned Thailand Securities Depository Company Limited, the Company's share registrar, to send the meeting invitation letter to shareholders 14 days in advance, while posted such information, which is the same information as sent to shareholders, in www.pacedev.com, the Company's website to allow shareholders sufficient time to study such information in advance. The Company also advertised the meeting invitation in daily newspapers for 3 consecutive days and 3 days in advance before the meeting in order to inform such shareholder meeting.
- 3.2 The meeting invitation provide sufficient and complete information, including date, time, place, agenda with details whether each agenda is for acknowledgement or consideration, enclosures of each agenda, purpose and reason, the directors' opinion, articles of association relating to the meeting, map, document or evidences required to be presented on the meeting date, and meeting attendance procedure. The Company has also provided meeting invitation letter in English to facilitate foreign shareholders.
- 3.3 The Company recognizes the importance of shareholders' rights, encourages shareholders to exercise their rights, and does not infringe or curtail shareholders' rights. At the shareholders' meeting, the Company provides significant issues for shareholders consideration and includes important items as required by laws, SET's regulations and the Company's regulations.

3.4 In the meeting invitation, agendas are clearly categorized for shareholders' consideration and approval. Details included in the invitation are:

- Director Appointment: The Company allows shareholders to appoint individual director by providing information about name, age, educational background, work experience, number of listed and non-listed companies served as director, nomination criteria and method, types of director that is proposed for appointment and meeting attendance in case of proposing previous director, which is screened by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

- Allocating Profit and Dividend Payment: The Company provides details of profit allocation and reserve fund, no dividend payment together with the reason in accordance with law, regulation and dividend policy.

4. Facilitating Shareholders

- 4.1 The Company's policy is to facilitate and encourage institutional investors, major and individual shareholder to attend the meeting.
- 4.2 The Company held the shareholders' meeting at W Hotel, Bangkok, the convenient place which is easily accessible by shareholders. The Company also facilitated all shareholders in a fair manner by providing adequate officers to take care of them.
- 4.3 The Company allows registration of shareholders two hours before the meeting, does not limit the rights of shareholders who come late, and facilitates shareholders to fully use their meeting rights.
- 4.4 The Company uses a barcode system detailing each shareholder's information as printed on the registration form. This is to facilitate fast and accurate registration, vote counting and display.
- 4.5 The Company gives shareholders who show up late a chance to vote on agenda items still under deliberation.

5. Conduct of the Shareholders' Meeting

- 5.1 At the beginning of the meeting, the Company introduces the Board of Directors, Chairman of each sub-committee, management, external auditor, and legal advisor attending the meeting and informs shareholders of the meeting rules and voting procedure, as well as the voting right.
- 5.2 The Company provides enough time for the meeting, encourages equal opportunities for shareholders to express their opinions and raise any questions in the meeting, where directors and management address and answer all questions clearly and precisely.
- 5.3 The Company conducts the shareholders' meeting in sequence detailed in the agenda as informed in the meeting invitation letter. There was no additional important material or information or agenda other than that printed in the meeting invitation added during the shareholders' meeting.

- 5.4 The Company provides separate voting card for each agenda for transparency and further investigation in case of argument afterwards, and in case that an agenda includes various topics, such as director appointment, the Company opens the opportunity for the shareholders to separately appoint individual director.

6. After the Shareholders' Meeting

- 6.1 The Company disclosed the resolutions of the meeting, together with the votes of each agenda, via SET and will announce on the Company's website within 9.00 a.m. of the day after the shareholders' meeting date.
- 6.2 The minutes of meeting was correct, complete and could be verified by shareholders. The minutes covered the name and position of directors who attended the meeting, voting method and counting, shareholders' opinions, the director's clarification and clear resolution, classifying into agree, disagree or abstain votes. The minutes was sent to the SET within 14 days after each meeting as well as posted on the Company's website.

Principle 2 Fair Treatment of Shareholders

The Company requires that all shareholders be treated fairly and equally. Consequently, the BOD set up the following policies:

- 1) Facilitate minority shareholders to nominate directors and suggest additional agenda before the commencement of the shareholder meeting.
- 2) Determine a clear rule in advance as to whether and how to add additional agenda suggested by minority shareholders into the existing agenda, and as to how minority shareholders can nominate candidates for the Company's directors.

The Company provides channel for shareholders to propose agenda item and nominate person for election as a director for the 2017 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, which is disclosed via the SET and the Company's website. One or several shareholders, holding not less than 1% of total shares can propose meeting agenda and director nominee, for 3 months, from 1 October – 31 December of each year. This proportion facilitates the shareholders more than specified by the law, which specifies that one or several shareholders, holding minimum share in the amount of 5% can propose meeting agenda.

- 3) Include only the agenda determined in advance without changing major information or adding new untold agenda unnecessarily, especially in the meeting with agenda that require extensive time to study and thorough understandings from shareholders.
- 4) Facilitate shareholders unable to attend the meeting by allowing such shareholders to grant the authority to attend and vote in the meeting to at least one of the independent directors or any individual of choice. The names of the selected independent directors must be informed in the meeting invitation letter.
- 5) Treat every shareholder fairly and equally, regardless of being majority or minority shareholders, Thai or foreign shareholders.

- 6) Encourage the use of voting cards in every agenda to prove transparency and measurability in the voting process, in case of a later dispute. In the director nomination agenda, the Company grants each shareholder the right to nominate directors person by person.
- 7) Establish a written guideline to maintain internal information and prevent misuse of such information and communicate the guideline to all entities in the organization. The Company also requires that all directors and executives report their securities holding and submit the report to the Company's BOD.

Principle 3 Responsibilities to Stakeholders

The Company truly recognizes and respects the rights of internal stakeholders, such as shareholders and employees, and external stakeholders, such as customers, trading partners, competitors, governmental entities, and other entities including surrounding communities, as they are important contributors to the Company's competitiveness and profitability, the main drivers of PACE's long-term value creation. The Company, therefore, set up the following policies:

1) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Shareholders

PACE realizes that shareholders are the true owners of the Company and wholeheartedly accepts fiduciary duty to create long-term value to its shareholders. It therefore requires that its employees adhere to the following guidelines:

- Behave in an honest, upright manner and always base one's decision on thorough considerations and fairness to every shareholder in order to maximize overall shareholders' value.
- Monitor and control the operation to ensure that the Company's financial status and performance are well maintained, and regularly report the Company's business status, performance, financial status, accounting information and other information in a true, unbiased manner.
- Report the Company's positive and negative trends, based on probabilities, solid evidence and backup reasoning, to every shareholder in an equal, unprejudiced fashion.
- Refrain from exploiting the Company's undisclosed information to one's or other's personal benefits and abstain from any other actions that may result in conflicts of interest with the organization.
- The Company must treat all shareholders equally in the shareholders' meeting.

2) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Governmental Entities

The Company highly values compliance with laws, rules, and regulations set forth by the regulating bodies, especially when transacting with governmental entities. In such exposures, it will avoid maneuver that may lead to misuses of authorities and misconducts. The Company, instead, tries to build relationships with the governmental bodies in a lawful way, such as normal greetings in public venues and paying visits in normal traditions. Guidelines for dealing with governmental bodies are as follows:

- Properly and carefully conduct oneself when contacting with governmental bodies or persons.
- Always realize that the laws, rules, and regulations set by different governmental entities may require different procedures, which the Company must know by heart and follow accordingly.

3) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Employees

The Company realizes that all employees are the most valuable assets and the key drivers for the organization's achievement.

It thus determined the policy to ensure fair treatment in employment opportunity, compensation, nomination, job rotation, and skill development as the followings:

- Treat all employees with respects in their honors, dignities, and individual rights.
- Always maintain a working environment that is safe for the lives and properties of employees.
- Nomination, rotation, awards giving, and penalty giving must be done with genuine intention, taking into account such employee's knowledge and appropriateness.
- Support the development of knowledge and skills of employees by constantly engaging them in learning opportunities, such as seminars, trainings, and workshops, which are equally accessible to all employees.
- Set fair remuneration rates consistent with the market condition, business competition, job type, performance, and the Company's ability to pay.
- Avoid any unfair treatment that may negatively affect employees' job security.
- Create opportunities for employees to give comments or file complaints in the subjects related to their professions and to suggest possible recommendations that will benefit all parties involved and create relationships and good working environment.

4) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Customers

The Company is determined to stay in real estate development business with the main purposes to create, present, and administer its products and services in the quality-focused, ethical principles as shown below:

- Be determined to procure and develop products and services to best serve the need of the clients.
- Deliver quality products and services with fair terms and conditions.
- Provide precise and sufficient information related to products and services that customers can utilize in their decision making process without exaggerating the qualifications, quality, quantity, or any conditions of the products and services in the Company's advertisement or in other communicating channels.
- Arrange to have communicating mechanism for customer complaints in place should there be any problems related to the Company's products or services so that the Company can immediately resolve such problem and utilize the information to improve the quality of its products and services.
- Maintain customers' confidential information and abstain from revealing or misuse of such information.

5) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Trading Partners and Counterparties

Realizing that trading partners and other counterparties are quintessential to the success of the Company, PACE has a strong policy to treat its trading partners and counterparties fairly and equally, placing mutual benefits before its own benefits. Guidelines for treatment of trading partners and counterparties are as follows:

- The Company will arrange to procure products and services efficiently by applying the following principles:
 - Competition on equivalent information

- Clear rules on trading partners and counterparty selection and assessment
 - Have proper agreements that are fair to both sides
 - Put in place management and tracking system to ensure that the conditions in the agreement are followed through completely and accurately to prevent fraud and corruption in every step of the procurement process
 - Make payment to trading partners and counterparties in a timely manner according to the agreed payment terms
- The Company is strongly resolute to develop and preserve sustainable relationship with its trading partners and counterparties that are reliable and determined to provide quality products and services worth of the Company's cost.
 - All executives and employees must abstain from taking personal benefits from trading partners and counterparties directly or indirectly in any circumstance.
 - All executives and employees must abstain from abusing information on procurement or purchasing for personal gains of oneself or of others.

6) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Lenders

The Company is determined to conduct its business based on solid principles and strict disciplines to create trust for lenders. In so doing it follows these rules:

- Rigorously follows the terms and conditions defined in the contracts or agreements.
- If the Company, in any circumstances, cannot satisfy the said terms and conditions, it will promptly inform relevant lenders in advance to seek for mutually agreed resolutions.

7) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Competitors

The Company is determined to be sustainably successful and to stand to be a leading real estate developer that competes fairly and ethically by following these principles:

- Conduct oneself according to a fair competition framework.
- Abstain from acquiring competitors' confidential information wrongfully or inappropriately and abusing such information for the Company's sake.
- Refrain from making false allegations or false statements that may destroy the reputation of the competitors.
- Abstain from engaging in activities that violate intellectual property rights of the Company's competitors or other entities.

8) Proper Conducts and Responsibilities towards Society

Recognizing its role in the sustainable development of the society and environment, the Company has been active in arranging several altruistic activities in its surrounding communities applying the following principles on responsibilities towards communities and environment:

- Put in place a policy to responsibly conduct business, taking into account environmental concerns, and strictly adhere to the laws and regulations on environment conservation currently in use.

- Have a clear set of CSR policies and enforce such policies in the organization.
- Encourage the Company's employees to be aware of and responsible for environment and society.
- Pay respects to local traditions, customs, and cultures in which the Company operates.
- Constantly engaging in activities that improve the living conditions of the surrounding communities, society, and environment held both by the Company itself and through collaboration with other governmental, local, or private entities.
- Suitably participate in the activities held by communities surrounding the project sites.
- Respond promptly and efficiently to the incidences that may affect the environment, communities, lives, and properties of others due to the business conducts of the Company, and unduly cooperate with governmental agents or other relevant parties to resolve such incidences.

In addition, the Company's interested persons can make inquiries, give comments, file complaints, or give information on illegal actions, financial statement inaccuracy, flawed internal control, and unethical actions to the Company's independent directors or members of the Audit Committee. The information will be classified and protected. Independent directors and members of Audit Committee will arrange to have the information investigated and find solutions (if any) and report to the Boards of Directors.

Principle 4 Information Disclosure and Transparency

- 1) The BOD has a policy to disclose financial information and other information pertaining to the business and the performance of the Company in a precise, complete, sufficient, regular, and timely manner to represent the true financial status, current performance, and the future trend of the Company's business.
- 2) The BOD is determined to ensure that the Company complies with laws, rules, and regulations regarding information disclosure and transparency. It arranges to have such information presented both in Thai and English versions on the Company's websites, public communication channels, and SET's communication channel to provide to its shareholders and other stakeholders a convenient access to the Company's information. It will also adjust its communication means to comply with guidelines set forth and enforced by the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
- 3) The Company will arrange to have staff in Investor Relations Department to be responsible for communicating with shareholders, institute investors, and retail investors, and to set up regular analyst meetings, as well as to distribute financial and general information to the Company's shareholders, analysts, rating agencies, and other governmental entities through several channels, such as reports submitted to the SET and the SEC and on PACE's website. In addition, the Company regularly discloses its information in both Thai and English versions through the Company's website to provide its shareholder a convenient access to updated company's information. The information posted on the website, including the Company's visions, missions, financial reports, news, annual reports, organization structures and executives, shareholder structure, and major shareholders will be regularly updated to reflect the most current status of the Company.

- 4) The Company places high emphasis on its financial reports and make sure that they reflect the true financial status and performance of the Company based upon correct, complete, and sufficient data according to the generally accepted accounting standards.
- 5) The Company will disclose the information regarding each director, roles and responsibilities of the Board of Directors and sub-committees, the number of meeting held and the number of meeting attended by each directors in the past year in its annual report (Form 56-2) and annual registration statement (Form 56-1).

Principle 5 Board of Director's Responsibilities

The BOD owes its fiduciary duty to the Company's shareholders to ensure that the Company complies with the governing laws, company's objectives, company's articles of association, and resolutions of shareholders' meetings

1) Structure of the Board of Directors

- 1.1) The Company's BOD consists of 9 members, each serving a 3-year term in position. Three of the members are executive directors. The other 6 members are non-executive directors, three of whom are independent directors. This structure is satisfied with the rules set forth by the SEC requiring that all listed companies must have the ratio of 1 independent director per 3 directors. All directors are knowledgeable in Engineering, Accounting and Finance.
- 1.2) The Company appointed Company Secretary to provide opinions and suggestions on legal points and regulations that the BOD must acknowledge, to support the activities of the BOD, and to coordinate with various entities in the execution of the BOD's resolution.

2) Sub-committees

- 2.1) The Company has 4 sub-committees, namely Audit Committee, Executive Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and Risk Management Committee. These sub-committees are set up to conform to the principle of good corporate governance and to provide assistance to the BOD.
- 2.2) Chairman of Audit Committee, Chairman of Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and Chairman of Risk Management Committee are all independent directors. This is to ensure independence and transparency in their job function.

3) Roles, Duties, and Responsibilities of the Board and Committees

The roles, duties, and responsibilities of the BOD and sub-committees will be covered in topic 9.2.

4) Meeting of the Board of Directors

- 4.1) The BOD determines at least 1 meeting per 1 quarter in advance, is scheduled in advance throughout the year and will arrange to have special meetings based on necessity and appropriateness on the case-by-case basis. In case of special meetings, the Company must inform the attendants at least 7 days prior to the meeting date. The meeting's constituted quorum is achieved when at least half of the directors attend the meeting.

- 4.2) The meeting agenda are clearly determined in advance by Chairman of the BOD and Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Company Secretary is responsible for ensuring that all the directors receive supporting document in a sufficient time period prior to the meeting to allow all attendants to study the agenda and make informed voting decision.
- 4.3) The BOD must receive sufficient, complete, and timely information before the commencement of every meeting. Directors can contact Company Secretary directly and freely to request recommendations pertaining to legal and regulation issues.
- 4.4) Chairman of the BOD is responsible for managing the meeting time properly to allow adequate time for management to present the information and sufficient time for the Board to discuss important agenda and give opinion on each agenda before summarizing the Meeting's resolution.
- 4.5) The BOD has a policy to allow non-executive directors to have a separated session to discuss management related issues of interest without the presence of management. The result of such meeting is to be informed to the CEO.
- 4.6) The BOD supports the decision of the CEO to invite high-level executives to the meeting of the BOD to give additional information to the Meeting as directly operative agents. This also gives the directors an opportunity to know high-level executives to be considered in the Company's succession plan.
- 4.7) During the consideration and the voting of every agenda, the directors who have conflicts of interest in such agenda must leave the meeting and refrain from voting.
- 4.8) Written meeting minutes are required in all of the meeting of the BOD. The minutes must be approved by the BOD and be maintained in a form that is ready to be reviewed by directors and/or other relevant parties.

5) Directors' Self-Assessment

Despite the fact that the Board of Directors and each committee have completely performed their responsibility, they arranged for self-assessment of the Board of Directors and Nomination and Remuneration Committee, in order to continually improve operational effectiveness. The self-assessment covers assessment for the entire Board of Directors and individual director. Audit Committee and Risk Management Committee are subjected to assessments for the entire committee. The performance assessment of the Board of Directors and each committee has the same rating criteria, and is consistent with the example of self-assessment of the board, provided by the SET. Furthermore, the assessment has been reviewed regularly to ensure its appropriateness.

The Company has in place an assessment procedure. The Company Secretary and the secretary of each committee sent the assessment form to the directors. After filling in the assessment form, the directors would send it back to the Company. To provide an independent evaluation, the name of the director would be concealed. The assessment result was proposed in the meetings of the Board of Directors and each committee for discussion and sought for the performance improvement.

The Board's entire assessment consists of 6 main items i.e.

1. Director's structure and qualifications
2. Roles, duties, and responsibilities of director
3. Director's Meeting
4. Director's Act
5. Relationship with management
6. Training and other information.

The Board's individual assessment consists of 3 main items i.e.

1. Director's structure and qualifications
2. Director's Meeting
3. Roles, duties, and responsibilities of director

6) Remuneration

The Company's BOD delegates the authority to recommend remuneration protocols to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Such protocols are to be approved in the shareholders' meeting and will be embodied in a remuneration policy. Such remuneration protocols are based on the following criteria:

- 6.1) The Company's performance and the size of the business, by comparing with remuneration of directors in other listed companies of the same nature and size
- 6.2) Experiences, roles, duties and responsibilities of each director
- 6.3) Expected value contribution from each director
- 6.4) Remuneration rate should be sufficient to attract qualified candidates to join the Company as directors or executives
- 6.5) Responsibilities of each director

7) Directors and Executives Development and Training Programs

The BOD has a policy to support and facilitate trainings for directors engaging in the Company's corporate governance process, such as directors, members of the Audit Committee, and high-level executives, to continually improve the Company's CG procedures. In the case of changing directors or appointing new directors, the Company's management will prepare document containing useful information for the work of the new directors and also arrange to have a session in which the Company's business nature and its operations are introduced to the new directors.

As of present, all directors have passed director training programs from Thai Institute of Directors (IOD). Some of them have passed Director Accreditation Program (DAP) and Director Certification Program (DCP) offered by the same institution.

In 2016, Mr. Songphon Chaovanayothin, a management, has attended Director Certification Program (DCP) held by IOD.

8) Conflicts of interest

The BOD has determined the guidelines to handle conflicts of interest satisfied with the ones provided by the SET and Securities and Exchange Act for the ultimate benefit of the Company. It is the duty of personnel in every level to resolve the situations at risk of conflicts of interest with a careful, upright, and independent mindset based on a well-laid ethical framework, and to transparently disclose necessary information with the Company's interest at heart.

9.3 SELECTION OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT

Nomination and Remuneration Committee is in charge of nominating qualified persons to be considered for the positions of the Company's directors, independent directors, and executives and seeking approval from the Board of Directors and/or Shareholders' Meeting (on a case-by-case basis). In so doing, the Committee will consider the candidate's qualifications, knowledge, abilities, and relevant experiences with consideration on desirable characteristics defined in Public Company Act. In addition, the candidates must not have prohibitive characteristics defined in Notification of the Securities and Exchange Commission No. KorChor. 8/2553 on Determination of Untrustworthy Characteristics of Company Directors and Executives (and subsequent amendments).

Components and Appointment of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors determines the rules to appoint and release the Company's directors as follows:

1. The Board of Directors consists of at least 5 directors, who will collectively select, among themselves, one person to be Chairman of the Board of Directors, and may select other members to be Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors and other positions as deemed suitable. At least half of the members of the Board of Directors must domicile in the Kingdom of Thailand.
2. The Company's directors do not need to also be the Company's shareholders.
3. The Meeting of the shareholders has authority to appoint the Company's directors based on majority rule by the following procedures
 - (1) Each shareholder has his/her voting rights equal to the number of shares held by such shareholder
 - (2) Each shareholder can use all of his/her voting rights to vote for one person or many persons, but he/she cannot divide the voting rights into pools of different size and give to many persons

- (3) Candidates will be selected based on their ranks in the voting process. The number of candidates selected will equal the number of vacant positions. If two or more candidates share the same rank, Chairman of the Meeting has authority to ultimately select the candidates.
4. In each annual general of shareholders' meeting, 1 in 3 of the Company's directors must resign. If the number of the directors is not divisible by 3, the number of directors who must resign will be the closest to 1/3 of the directors. The Company uses lot method to define the directors to resign in the first and second year after the Company is listed. In the following years, the directors with the longest term in position must resign, yet with the chance of being reelected.
5. Besides termination by term expiration, the director status may end when the directors:
 - (1) Decease
 - (2) Resign
 - (3) Lack required qualifications or have prohibitive characteristics according to the Public Company Act
 - (4) The Meeting of shareholders resolute early termination of the director status by voting at least 3 in 4 of the shareholders with voting rights who present in the Meeting and have the combined shares at least half of the shares held by shareholders who present in the Meeting
 - (5) The status is terminated by court decree
6. In case that the director position becomes vacant for the reasons other than expiration of term, the Board of Directors may select qualified persons who have no prohibitive characteristics according to the Public Company Act to be a representative of the directors, except such term will be expired within 2 months. The persons who represent in the Board will assume the position only for the remaining term of the previous director. Selecting of such representative requires 3 in 4 approvals from the remaining directors.

Components and Appointment of Audit Committee

1. Audit Committee consists of 3 independent directors, at least 1 of them possesses adequate knowledge or experiences of Accounting and Finance to be able to verify the reliability of the Company's financial statements.
2. Qualifications of independent directors are stated in topic 9.2.2 Qualifications of independent directors, which is consistent with the minimum requirements defined by the SEC and the SET
3. The Board of Directors or the annual general of shareholders' meeting has the authority to appoint the Audit Committee. Each member of the Audit Committee has a 3-year term, and can be reappointed once after the expiration of term. Reappointment is subjected to the approval of the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting.

Components and Appointment of Executive Committee and the Company's Executives

Nomination and Remuneration Committee has the authority to search for, review, and nominate the qualified candidates to the Board of Directors for approval as already mentioned in topic 9.2.4.

Components and Appointment of Nomination and Remuneration Committee

1. Nomination and Remuneration Committee consists of 5 directors, at least 1 in 3 (1/3) of whom are independent directors. Chairman of Nomination and Remuneration Committee must be an independent director.
2. The Board of Directors owns authority to appoint the members of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.
3. Each member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has a 2-year term, and can be reappointed once after the expiration of term. Reappointment is subjected to the approval of the Board of Directors.

Components and Appointment of Risk Management Committee

1. Risk Management Committee consists of 5 directors, at least 1 in 3 (1/3) of whom are independent directors. Chairman of the Risk Management Committee must be an independent director.
2. The Board of Directors owns authority to appoint the members of the Risk Management Committee

9.4 MONITORING OF THE OPERATION OF AFFILIATES AND SUBSIDIARIES

In order to monitor the operation of its affiliates and subsidiaries, the Company will send a representative, whose may be Chairman of the Board of Directors, CEO, directors, top management, or any person who has the qualifications and experience of those, to be directors in affiliates and subsidiaries. A representative shall not have a conflict of interest and shall perform by based on rule and regulation of affiliates and subsidiaries as set out in the article of association, related law of affiliates and subsidiaries, including regulation of SET and SEC such as the acquisition and disposal of asset, and connected transaction.

In the past operation of the Company, the nomination and the voting to appoint directors of the Company's affiliates and subsidiaries are performed by the Company's management. Nevertheless, starting from 2014 onwards, the nomination and the appointment of such persons must be approved by the Company's Board of Directors. Directors of the affiliates and subsidiaries are responsible for maximizing the benefits of such companies, not those of the Company. In addition, in the case of subsidiaries, the directors of such subsidiaries are responsible for arranging to have a recording system of related transactions to ensure that such transactions be recorded, maintained in the proper fashion that is easy to verify and used for timely financial statement preparation.

9.5 CONTROLLING MEASURES FOR THE USE OF INTERNAL INFORMATION

Realizing the importance of transparency in corporate governance, the Company's Board of Directors put in place the following policies to prevent the misuse of the Company's undisclosed information for personal benefits:

- 1) Educate the Company's directors, executives, and managers in charge of Accounting or Finance Department with the rank of First Vice President and higher about the duty to prepare and submit the report of securities

- holding of oneself, spouses, and minor children to the SEC and SET according to the rules defined in Chapter 59 and penalty clauses in Chapter 275 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535
- 2) The Company requires directors, executives, and managers in charge of Accounting or Finance Department with the rank of First Vice President and higher to always prepare and submit the report of securities holding of oneself, spouses, and minor children through Company Secretary before submitting to the SEC and the SET within 30 days since the date that such persons are appointed to assume the positions of directors or executives, as well as to prepare and submit the report of change of securities holding within 3 working days since the date of the purchase, sale, transfer, or receiving of such securities.
 - 3) The Company requires that its directors, executives, managers in charge of Accounting or Finance Department with the rank of First Vice President or higher, and other persons having access to the Company's material undisclosed information that may affect the price of the Company's securities refrain from selling or buying such securities before the disclosure of financial statements, financial status, or business status prior to the disclosure of such information to the public. In so doing, the Company will notify its directors, executives, and managers in charge of Accounting Department or Finance Department with the rank of First Vice President or higher to refrain from aforementioned action in written notices at least 30 days prior to the public disclosure date. In addition, such persons must wait at least 24 hours after the public disclosure before they can start transacting the securities and must not reveal such information to others by themselves.
 - 4) The Company determines a range of disciplinary penalties for the misuse of internal information for personal benefits from written warnings, compensation deduction, suspension without payment, and dismissal. Execution of appropriate penalties depends on the offender's intention and the seriousness of the offensive actions.

9.6 COMPENSATION OF AUDITORS

The compensation paid to the auditor for the review of interim financial statements and the auditing of financial statements for the accounting period 2016 of the Company and its subsidiaries in Thailand totals 7.12 million Baht and the subsidiaries in USA total amount USD 127,400.

10. Corporate Social Responsibility

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) in 2016

2016 marked another year of PACE Sustainable Development continuing principles implemented from previous years. CSR initiatives are created to align with the Corporate Social Responsibility Institute (CSRI), the Stock Exchange of Thailand and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Thailand ensuring the Company operates with integrity for the benefit of all stakeholders.

CSR Structure

CSR activities of the Company are overseen by the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee ("CSRC") comprising of executives from various departments with Executive Director as the Chairman. The aim of CSRC is to provide useful guidelines for Corporate Sustainability together with managing reputation and sustainability risks. For specific action plans, CSRC has appointed staff from various departments to form 4 Sub-Committees:

- 1) CSRC Sub-Committee on activities
- 2) CSRC Sub-Committee on Sponsorship and Donation
- 3) CSRC Sub-Committee for nearby community
- 4) CSRC Sub-Committee for Stakeholder Engagement

(E) Environment: Environmental Management and Environmental Risk Management

PACE recognizes the importance of the environment. Each property aims to improve the local landscape and enhance people's lives through design, including creating environmentally friendly buildings, adding green areas and elements for maximizing the quality of life for residents and stakeholders, as well as ongoing processes for sustainable operation to save energy and protect the environment. The Company has a process to assess environmental risks in business processes at each property, to maximize operational efficiency, and minimize the impact during the construction process.

MahaNakhon

MahaNakhon is a leading landmark for Thailand, and the design includes a number of features such as automated parking, high quality façade and advanced control systems to maximize energy efficiency. MahaNakhon CUBE is the first part of the mixed-use MahaNakhon development to operate on an ongoing basis, and the retail center already uses a waste management process including separating waste by type for a higher rate of recycling. Through data collection, benchmarking, and ongoing improvements in operation efficiency, the Company aims to set qualitative and quantitative performance goals to enable MahaNakhon CUBE to become a greener, more environmentally friendly building. These targets will then also be used to guide operations for the main tower which will be fully operational in 2017.

CSRC Sub-Committee for nearby community has engaged with the community around MahaNakhon each month to listen to concerns, address any problems related to the environment around the site and act as needed to solve social issues relating to MahaNakhon site. This meeting is a venue for discussion, clarification and stakeholder engagement for mutual understanding.

MahaSamutr

MahaSamutr is a large villa and Country Club development now under construction, with a long-term plan under development for managing city waste in collaboration with Subdistrict Administrative Organization (SAO), Tub Tai District and Hua Hin Municipality. The plan is created coordinating with experts in sustainable waste management to help reducing/recycling/eliminating waste in a sustainable manner, which will commence as the property becomes operational in 2017. MahaSamutr features a large man-made lagoon which operates at a high degree of efficiency using minimal chemicals to keep the water clean, using patented technology from Crystal Lagoon, minimizing the energy and environmental impact of the property. MahaSamutr uses water sourced from rain and from Pranburi Water Works, during the water shortages in Hua Hin, PACE will also be able to assist the Hua Hin community providing access to MahaSamutr's pipe to obtain water from Pranburi.

Nimit Langsuan

NIMIT Langsuan is a new freehold development on Langsuan Road now under construction since 2016. PACE by the CSRC Sub-Committee for nearby community has continuously engaged with the community around Nimit Langsuan project to meet and discuss for better understanding towards the project timeline and construction and/or concerns, complaints on a monthly basis, which will continue until construction is complete. Moreover, PACE has also joined a bi-monthly meeting with the Langsuan Community at Mater Dei School with the objectives for creating better living, and a safer and cleaner Langsuan.

Energy Conservation

The Company has a policy of encouraging and educating staff to conserve energy and recycle where possible in the workplace, and this program has enabled energy savings across offices run by PACE. In future, the Company will continue rolling out further measures for water and electricity conservation as well as an expanded program to recycle and reuse where possible for all business processes.

Mangrove Conservation

In 2016, the Company has planted mangroves inside the Mangrove Ecosystem Preservation & Science Education Centre which improves the marine ecosystem, marking the 60th Royal Birthday Occasion of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn.

(S) Social: Social Management and Social Risk Management

Cornerstones of PACE CSR include engaging employees, stakeholders and the community at large through sharing and developing principles of education, sustainable development and providing assistance for the less fortunate.

Internal Sustainable Human Capital Development

1) CSR Champion Project

PACE aims to continuously develop employees' skills and knowledge about CSR through the CSR Champion project begun in 2016. Staff selected from all departments are appointed as "Champions" who learn about CSR, including recommendations from SET's Sustainability Assessment program for correction and enhancement for more effective performance, then share with colleagues to create greater awareness and recognition of CSR principles. Training for Effective Sustainability Development started with a knowledge sharing session in June 2016 held with Thaipat Institute and the Stock Exchange of Thailand, where participants gained knowledge in Sustainable Development as well as a focus on Children's Rights. Using a monthly meeting program, the education of CSR Champions creates a group of staff who can then contribute and share information about Sustainable Development throughout the organization.

2) Human Capital Development

PACE employees are one of the Company's most important assets. The Company provides attractive benefits, access to training, opportunities for career advancement and flexibility for staff with special needs. PACE has continuously developed employees' competencies by setting clear objectives for each training course. Workshop in Anti-Corruption & Corporate Social Responsibility (ACCSR01) and Brush-Up Workshop in Anti-Corruption & Corporate Social Responsibility (ACCSR02) are the annual mandatory courses for employees.

Community Education & Outreach Program

1) MahaNakhon Education Program

Education is a vital component of Thailand's development, and the ongoing education initiative of PACE aims to provide education about High Rise Building Development to the architecture, design and construction community. To date this has included playing an active role globally with membership and presentations at CTBUH (Council for Tall Buildings and Urban Habitat) in Shenzhen, 2016, as well as numerous seminars and presentations in Bangkok to local and international students and educators.

As Thailand's tallest landmark, MahaNakhon has numerous innovations and a thought process with advanced elements and challenges. PACE has openly shared knowledge and experience in building this tower to the Thai industry and younger generations to inspire, educate and further design for the development of other projects for Thailand in the future. In 2016, PACE presented to 5 different universities, reaching a total of 610 students to date, including real estate, architecture, engineering, and design faculties.

2) Business Network Operations for Aging Society

PACE is one of the private companies joining a business network to set up responsible operations to prepare for an aging society in Thailand in the coming 5 years. The initiative "Complete Aging Society in Thailand" is in collaboration with Thaipat Institute and Department of Older Persons, Ministry of Social Development and Human Security. PACE also has a policy to hire retired personnel age 60+ years old to work in important positions requiring knowledge and special experience, with 2 staff in such category already.

3) PACE Day Care Centre

As a property developer, PACE realizes the risks to safety for children of workers at construction sites. PACE Day Care Centre for the children of the workers regardless of nationality, race or religion enables construction workers to work worry-free leaving their children with a teacher at the centre, provided free near MahaNakhon. Clean and professional children care is provided in collaboration with the Melissa Cosgrove Children's Foundation. In addition, PACE enables employees to take part in this initiative by donating supplies, books, stationaries and food for the children.

4) Operation Smile Thailand 2016

PACE has now supported fund raising event "Fight Night" for Operation Smile Thailand for four years, raising funds for free surgeries to repair cleft lip, cleft palate and other facial deformities for children throughout the country. PACE donated cash as well as participation with prizes given for a silent auction from MahaNakhon CUBE tenants as well as MahaSamutr Country Club which offered 1 year membership to one lucky donor as a special prize.

5) PACE Libraries for Upcountry Schools

PACE aims to enhance Thai people's quality of life including helping underprivileged Thai children in remote areas. In 2016, PACE donated construction and development costs for 4 PACE libraries in Khun Yuam, Mae Hong Son province, for supporting Thai Tribal villagers upcountry to have knowledge access as a solution to goal number 4 of the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDGs) "Quality Education".

6) Collaboration with Social Enterprise “SocialGiver”

PACE in collaboration with the award winning social enterprise SocialGiver has raised funds through products and services for the SocialGiver in order to support “Teach for Thailand” project, a non-profit organization that believes excellent education should be available to all, providing the right skills and experience to make a meaningful difference in the lives of young people. This initiative can enhance the quality of life of Thai people through quality education particularly for the underprivileged.

(G) Governance: Corporate Governance Management and Corporate Governance Risk Management

Sound corporate governance remains a core competency of PACE, and the Company focuses on continuing to improve and develop measures which will enable all employees, stakeholders and clients to benefit from sound corporate governance, transparency and principles.

Corporate Governance

PACE has a policy that the Board of Directors do not take any position at other listed companies exceeding 3 companies, to demonstrate work efficiency and maintain focus on the Company's corporate governance and transparency in policy. The Company also has joined various activities to help combating corruption for instance participation in seminar on National Anti-Corruption Day and bring back best practices to fellow employees for applying within the organization.

Employee Education & Advancement

Applying fair and reasonable governance for the benefit of PACE employees and management is a vital element of the Company's policies. The Firm is committed to creating an equal opportunity environment where performance and integrity in the workplace is assessed and affirmed through training and review. PACE continues to conduct a mandatory workshop for all newly recruited staff for strengthening knowledge and skills of employees throughout the year.

Benchmarking and Best Practice

As a leading Thai developer, PACE uses benchmarking and analysis of best practice for CSR initiatives as well as corporate governance, for the long-term sustainable development of improved systems and methods to ensure that the Company operates using optimal structures, The Company supports regular attendance at Governance Seminars by employees who can then bring knowledge back to be shared with other team members. The Company sets rules and regulations in compliance with Thai Laws to encourage all staff and departments to operate with honesty and professionalism

Preventing Corruption

Preventing Corruption is a national agenda item for Thailand, and addressing the issue requires collaboration among all parties. As a major commitment towards anti-corruption, PACE is part of the Participation in the Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption (CAC project), PACE has completed the internal process and filed Certification Request to CAC in December 2016 with results in 2017.

Whistle Blower Program

A whistle blower policy for employees and related parties enables anonymous reporting to reach the company for any suspected cases and any incident that might be against PACE's Anti-Corruption Policy:

audit_com@pacedev.com. In 2016, the company received 0 cases.

11. Internal Control

11.1 OPINIONS OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE

In the meeting of the Board of Directors (BOD) number 3/2017 on February 28th, 2017, with the presence of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee jointly assessed the Company's internal control process and compared it to the standards provided by referencing the "Internal Control System Assessment Form" of the Securities and Exchange Commission. There are 5 components of the SEC standards, namely Control Environment, Risk Management, Control Activities, Information & Communication, and Monitoring Activities.

The BOD concluded that the Company has an internal control system that is sufficient and suitable for its business. In addition, the BOD supported the Company's management to continually improve the quality of the internal control system to bolster PACE's Good Corporate Governance. The summary of the assessment is as follows:

1. Control Environment

The Company's organization is well-arranged and suitable for the type of business. The organization's objectives are clearly identified and the operational guidelines are well-planned and measurable. Moreover, the Company's policy, regulation, and code of conducts on business ethics are clearly written to prevent the management and employees from engaging in any activities that may give rise to conflicts of interest.

2. Risk Management

The Company places high importance on risk management. It, hence, set up the Risk Management Committee to monitor the overall risk level of the Company, established a process to analyze external and internal risk factors that may affect the business, and arranged to have regular Risk Management Committee Meetings to assess risk factors and identified mitigation measures to reduce or avoid any event that may pose a threat to the Company's performance or reputation. The Risk Management Committee is obliged to report directly to the Board of Directors. The identified measures are then communicated to relevant officers for execution, after which regular monitoring and reassessment will be done.

3. Control Activities

The Company has put a proper process in place to appropriately control management's actions. It clearly identified the rights, duties and approval authorities for each level of management persons in the written form. The roles and responsibilities in giving approvals, recording, asset custody, and auditing are distinctly segregated. In the case of a transaction with major shareholders, directors, executives, and their relating parties, the Company will strictly follow the approval regulation with the Company's interest as the ultimate consideration and as if the transaction was being done with other unrelated parties.

4. Information & Communication

The Company arranged to have sufficient data reporting to support the decision making of the Board of Directors. In practice, the BOD receives meeting invitations and all supporting documents that contain sufficient information at least 7 days prior to the meeting. The minutes are kept both as hard copies and electronic copies that are easy to be retrieved yet cannot be altered. The minutes contain complete details that shareholders can use to assess the appropriateness of the directors' conducts. In addition, the Company set up a systematic approach to store supporting documents for account recording. A complete set of documents are sorted in a pattern that is ever-ready for auditors. Financial reports are prepared for the Board of Directors in a manner that truly represent the performance of the business.

5. Monitoring Activities

The Company has the meeting of the Board of Directors (BOD) arranged 10 meetings and the meeting of the Audit Committee arranged 7 meetings. For Consider and monitor the performance of the management team to achieve the Target.

The Audit Committee considered and approved the annual internal audit plan and reviews identified issues with the Internal Audit Department on a regular. The Committee requires the department to submit audit reports to it directly so that the auditors can do their job independently and free from management's interference, if any. In the case that significant errors are singled out, the Company will report the findings to the Board of Director and the Audit Committee to seek immediate remedies. After that, the progress on remedies will be reported to the Board of Directors. Moreover, the Company determined the policy requiring that executives immediately report to the Board of Directors if any fraud, illegal action, violation of laws, or any event that may significantly affect the Company's reputation or financial status take place.
