Overall situation is still not changed. Overall cost in Q2/2022 still maintain at high level but not much further increase comparing with last quarter. However, our revenue is increased by 10 Million Baht comparing with Q1/2022 due to increasing of the product price and our policy to push high margin product so we can get more income and higher gross and net profit than Q1/2022.

According to our policy to marketing and producing more on high margin product group, we get more revenue from this group of our product range and can achieve better company profit, even though we are still in tight market and high cost of production. We forecast that if we can continue push this product group to the market, we will be able to achieve good margin when the economy become normal situation.

The assets and liabilities of the company as of 30 June 2022 are as following:

- Current assets is a little bit down from Q1/2022 but still much higher than Q2/2021 because we still have purchased raw materials which the price will be increased in 3rd Quarter.
- Non-current assets are decreased due to depreciation as usual.
- Overall liabilities are less because of paying back to financial institution.
