Total	34,175	100.0%	58,669	100.0%	(24,494)	(41.7%)

For the period ended 30 June 2023, the interest income from short-term loans consists of factoring contracts, Loan contracts, and installment sales have total interest income of 31.1 million baht or 91.0% and interest income from long-term loans is finance lease and hire-purchase contracts have total interest income of 3.1 million baht or 9.0% while in the same period of the previous year the percentage of interest income from short-term loans is 87.1% and 12.9% from long-term loans, which is not significantly different.

The interest incomes are mainly from factoring contracts. For the 6 months period of 2023, the interest income from factoring contracts has about 24.6 million baht or 72.0% compared with the same period of the previous year 57.9% because the Company focuses on financing low-risk financial products and high liquidity to reduce the risk of non-performing loans (NPLs) for new financing. The interest income from loan contracts has 5.3 million baht decreased from 14.9 million baht compared with the previous period. The Company has more intensity on determining financing new loans due to it being a high-risk product. As a result, the financing amount of loan contracts decreased. Including, the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and SMEs have decreased in liquidity from the economic pressure resulting in freezing revenue recognition as an accounting standard.

A decrease in financing amount led to a decrease in the size of the debtor portfolio, resulting in a decrease in interest income. It comes from the intensity before lending. In addition, the overall of the economy in various industries and severe inflation, goods and wages higher. This directly affects the liquidity of SMEs, which are the company's main customers, they take longer period to recover than large companies. So, the Company had to reserved provision which align to risk and quality of customers, the Company also closes monitoring progression of each projects and carefully financing to reduce NPLs by new financing.
